Celebrating the Solemnity of Saint Joseph

This month of March is very special for the Diocese of San Jose. We celebrate this month the Solemnity of Saint Joseph, our Principal Patron in the Diocese. He is the spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Patron of the Universal Church. This year's celebration of the Solemnity of Saint Joseph is transferred to March 20th as March 19th this year is the Fourth Sunday of Lent. The mention of St. Joseph conjures up thoughts of a holy man, the earthly father of Jesus and a hard-working carpenter. Although he's one of the most-recognized saints, little is known about him.

In the Bible, he is referred to as a "just man," which was considered a high compliment in his time. It also meant that he was willing and open to do whatever God asked of him, including taking Mary as his wife, despite her unusual – and blessed pregnancy (Matthew 1:19). He also loved and cared for Jesus. There also is a reference that St. Joseph was a descendant of King David.

St. Joseph protected his family, heeding the Lord's direction, which came in a series of dreams and messages from angels. After being instructed not to be afraid to take Mary as his wife, he did. They traveled to Bethlehem, where he found a safe place for Jesus to be born. In another dream, he followed the angel's direction to flee with Mary and baby Jesus to Egypt to protect them. Later, when those who wanted to harm Jesus were gone, an angel instructed Joseph to return home.

After that, there is little mention of St. Joseph. Pope Francis in his Apostolic Letter "Patris Corde, translated as "With a Father's heart", that marked the 150th Anniversary of Blessed Pius XI's declaration of Saint Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church, describes Saint Joseph as a beloved father, a tender father, an obedient father, an accepting father, a father who is creatively courageous, a working father and a father in the shadows. A few years ago, Pope Francis proclaimed a special Year of Saint Joseph from December 8, 2020 to December 8, 2021.

Aside from Saint Joseph's Solemnity on March 19, we also have the Feast of Saint Joseph the Worker, on May 1 as established by Pope Pius XII in 1955. Through the life and example of Saint Joseph who went unnoticed and discreet and almost hidden, we see an incomparable role he had in the history of the salvation of man.

Aside from the images of Saint Joseph holding some tools for carpenters, we also have his image holding lilies, which symbolize integrity and indicate that he was the earthly spouse of the Blessed Mother, whose purity is represented by a white lily. A group of three lilies can represent the Trinity. We ask the intercession of Saint Joseph to intercede for all fathers, and workers and also for the People of God in the Diocese of San Jose. As we celebrate the feast of Saint Joseph, may we love unconditionally and be good and faithful servants of the Lord. Saint Joseph, pray for us!

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

My Brother Knights,

Hoping you are all in good health and hope everybody is in high spirits starting this year's Lenten season. I hope everybody is ready to observe this year's lenten season as every knight should be.

Last month, we held our recruitment drive after all masses on the weekend of February 11 and 12 and since I'm away, I cannot report on this. Really, the best approach is to approach each candidate individually and ask them to join us.

The San Jose Chapter is selling tickets for the Crab Feed, raising money for the various projects of the Diocese of San Jose. Please, buy tickets as this will be for a benevolent cause. The event will happen on March 18, 2023 at 6 pm at the St. Lawrence the Martyr Church.

As a member of the Knights of Columbus, we are required to attend at least one retreat each year and St. Victor Council is offering one on March 25, 2023 from 12 to 5 pm at St. Victor's Church. Please avail of this opportunity.

If you want to join a daily rosary, there's one sponsored by the Bishop O'Dowd Council #3747 by joining through Zoom.

Brothers, we are given these opportunities to cleanse ourselves and let us avail of them to be ready for this Lenten Season.

Please stay healthy always in mind and spirit and see you on our next meeting.

Vivat Jesus,
 Bro. Manuel Mallabo III,
 Grand Knight

PLEASE PRAY FOR:

Brother Bill Poehlman-In Hospice and has COVID.
Brother Skip Yenchik-Going in for heart surgery.

Brother Timothy Crews
 Brother Bill and wife Sally Paulsen
 Rev. Paul Weisbeck
 Brother Greg Dessel
 Brother Ernesto Bautista
 And all those listed in the Church Bulletin Prayer List.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Brother Knights,

I want to remind our Brothers and their family members that we will arrive at the Holy Week of this Lenten season beginning on Palm Sunday April 2 and ask that you continue your acts of Charity during the remainder of this season.

Also remember that we begin the Easter Season on Easter Sunday, April 9, which will last for 50 days, until Pentecost Sunday. During the Easter Season we celebrate the Lord's resurrection from the dead, culminating in his Ascension to the Father in heaven and the sending down of the Holy Spirit upon the Church. Remember what we each accomplished during this Lenten season and let us continue our quest in helping those who are less fortunate than us and who need our assistance. Remember, Charity is the first basic principle of our Order.

Additionally continue reflecting upon the information in the pamphlet released by Supreme entitled “The Family Fully Alive”, Building the Domestic Church. The term “domestic church” describes the identity and mission of a Christian family. Its roots are scriptural. There are also the two booklets in the KofC Catholic Information Service that are especially informative during this coming season of Lent. The booklet “Penance” (#115) of the Luke E. Hart Series’ will assist you in overcoming your fears and misconceptions during your required Sacrament of confession preparations. Then the booklet “Way of the Cross” (#363) of the Veritas Series provides both traditional and modern meditations for your use in Way of the Cross sessions. These and other information booklets can be located and downloaded at <http://www.kofc.org/un/en/cis/index.html>.

Also continue reflecting upon the information in the pamphlet released by Supreme entitled “The Family Fully Alive”, Building the Domestic Church. The term “domestic church” describes the identity and mission of a Christian family. Its roots are scriptural.

Please continue to follow the articles in this current bulletin for the contributions from our four Faith In Action Program categories Directors: (1) FAITH Director - Brother Khai Phan, (2) FAMILY Director - Brother Guillermo Uribe, (3) COMMUNITY Director - Brother Frank DeSmidt, and (4) LIFE Director - Brother Vinh Nguyen. All programs that our council participates in are positioned in one of these categories for reporting purposes to Supreme. If you have an interest in supporting one of these Programs please contact myself or the Director of that Program category.

Building the Domestic Church Theme for December is - FAMILY DIFFICULTIES

All families face difficulties. At such critical moments, it is important to learn how to suffer well and to suffer together with Christ. Suffering, if given to the Lord, can bring families closer together and strengthen their love.

Scripture Reading — Psalm 34:5-11

A prayer for those who suffer to trust in the Lord.

I sought the LORD, and he answered me, delivered me from all my fears.

Look to him and be radiant, and your faces may not blush for shame.

This poor one cried out and the LORD heard, and from all his distress he saved him.

The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and he saves them.

Taste and see that the LORD is good; blessed is the stalwart one who takes refuge in him.

Fear the LORD, you his holy ones; nothing is lacking to those who fear him.

The rich grow poor and go hungry, but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.

Following is a summary of the council events for the month of February 2023

CULTURE OF LIFE NEWS

Shameless

WANTED: Villain. Must be evil, ruthless, heartless, sinister, cunning, underhanded. Ability to destroy everything in sight and take pleasure in others’ pain preferred. No experience needed. If writers advertised, that’s likely what they’d say. Every good story needs a bad guy or girl. Actually, it could be neither—a tornado or earthquake will work just fine. Whoever or whatever, villains are vital. They provide needed conflict so that in the end, good can triumph over evil.

Throwing a villain into the mix is just not the stuff of storytellers. It’s a persuasive technique used in real life. Ask trial lawyers. They understand that to get jurors on their side, vilifying the other side can really help. Why? It allows the lawyers to wrap their clients in the mantle of a downtrodden victim. And it gives jurors reason to believe that by ruling in their favor, they are righting a wrong and doing justice.

Who understands this principle best of all? Politicians, of course. They’re famous for making their opponents look downright evil. Negative ads, the more vicious the better, have become the staple of American politics. And when politicians can’t find a way to vilify an opponent, they create a villain and associate their opponents with it.

For about the last ten years, some politicians have been working on an old favorite—racism. We know for a sad fact that racism has been a part of our country's history. Slavery was present at its founding, and it grew into a mighty institution. We had become so divided over slavery that by 1861, we went to war against ourselves. That war cost 625,000 American lives, with many others wounded. We came this close to destroying our country. But even afterwards, the vestiges of racism remained. It merely took a different form: segregation in education, public accommodations, voting, and employment. It kept us divided. One hundred years after the Civil War, our nation had once again become a powder keg. In the 1960s, cities were literally in flames all across the country.

But those same '60s also marked a change for the good. With great struggle, our country began to pass legislation that would help bring us together. The Civil Rights Act of 1964 was landmark legislation, followed by other laws having a single purpose: to show us that we could prosper if we gave each other an equal opportunity. By and large, those laws have worked. Our workplaces and neighborhoods are increasingly diverse. People are treating each other as equals. All over the country, true friendships among peoples of all different races have taken root and blossomed. Opportunities do exist for advancement in all types of endeavors. In government, our leaders are people of all races, from the lowest to the highest posts. Nothing is perfect nor will ever be, but in fact we have made tremendous strides over the last 50+ years in resolving the racial tension. It's something for which we should be rightly proud. It has united us in ways not previously known in our history.

Yet to listen to many Democratic politicians these days, racism is the biggest problem this country faces. The media has fueled that message. And as we march towards election 2020, it's sure to grow louder and louder. But ask this question: in your experience, does it seem true? And if not, why are we hearing it? It creates a villain useful in dirtying up the other side, and so in garnering votes. But this manufactured villain hides, likely purposely so, the real villain they so strongly support. And this villain will destroy us.

The real villain is legal abortion. It's destroying the black community right now. Estimates are that over 260 black babies are killed by legal abortion every single day, mostly by Planned Parenthood. Want something more frightening? Planned Parenthood kills more black people in two weeks than the Ku Klux Klan killed in a century. If black lives truly matter, why does Planned Parenthood kill more black people in a day than police do in a year? In New York City, there are more black babies aborted than are born alive. Black females make up about 13% of our population but have 36% of all abortions. At that rate, are they being targeted? They're certainly being preyed on.

If we understand racism, we'll realize that abortion is its ultimate form. Racism is the incorrect belief, put to action, that a person of one race is superior to a person of another. Some have expanded that definition to include cultural racism. Whatever, the essence of racism is the belief that an oppressed person lacks the same dignity, and so the same rights, as the oppressor. That's the essence of legal abortion. It is the erroneous belief, put to action, that the already born are superior to the waiting-to-be-born. Legal abortion holds that the unborn lack the same dignity, and so the same right to life, as the born. It's more than that they can't eat at the same restaurant, or sit on the same bus seat, or even use the same toilet as a born person. It's that they can't even live. Is there anything more racist than that?

This racism is eating at our hearts and tearing us apart. Consider comments about efforts to end abortion. "White women should be encouraged to abort their children." Another person says that abortion is needed self-care because of the effects of "white supremacy." Recently actress Anne Hathaway got into the act, accusing pro-life men and white women of hating black women. She's angry that Alabama's governor and a state rep, both women, supported pro-life legislation. Then there's the white female professor who says that white Republican men deserve "miserable deaths" while feminists "castrate their corpses and feed them to swine." She teaches at a Catholic university. How's that for division—just for trying to save lives.

We need to realize before it's too late that allowing an evil to exist just allows more evil to exist. It's time to unite in battle against what is destroying us as a people. We don't need to invent villains. The real villain is bad enough. It's out to kill. And kill.

Paul V. Esposito is a Catholic lawyer who writes on a variety of pro-life topics. He and his wife Kathy live in Elmhurst, Illinois and have six children.

FRATERNAL INSURANCE AGENT'S CORNER

March this year, to me, means Spring and Spring cleaning, Lent and preparing for Easter, and the day when we're all a little bit Irish, St. Patrick's Day. Let me start with St. Patrick's Day. It's a nice break from the doldrums of winter and a brief respite from Lenten preparation. To all of my members, Irish or not, I say "Sláinte!"

This year we're immersed in Lent for the entire month as we look forward to Easter on April 9. This is a time of renewal and preparation for Holy Week, Christ's Passion, and his conquest over death in the Resurrection. May your focus be on generous giving and spreading peace to everyone you encounter.

Spring...we've been through the toughest part of winter and we begin to think about Spring. And Spring is a time of rebirth and renewal: trees may begin to bud and flowers begin to poke through in search of warmer temperatures. The Spring equinox means that daylight lasts as long as night with the earth spinning toward that summer solstice. Maybe, just maybe, winter is behind us. While you're getting rid of all the old cobwebs of winter and doing the annual spring cleaning, now is a great time to take a fresh look at your family's financial security.

With a wide range of products—life insurance, long-term care insurance, disability income insurance and retirement annuities, I can help you look at your family's financial situation now and for the years to come. All this while you deal with a company that shares your faith and beliefs and invests in accordance with Church social teaching.

As your Knights of Columbus Field Agent I've been trained to help you through that important process. Sit down for a short meeting with me and we can use our newest and most advanced financial needs analysis platform that the Order has ever had. I'll take the time to gather information from you, ask about your wants, needs and desires, and put together any recommendations to help you meet those.. As always you're under no obligation.

I'll contact you soon to see if an appointment should be our next step.

MEMBERSHIP NOTES

My Brothers,

Our Recruitment Drive on February 11 and 12 after all masses was a great success. We have two sign ups and are now waiting to be approved by the Council and then the Exemplification of Charity, Unity and Fraternity.

You know what I always say, don't forget, the best way for us to get new members is for you to ask them. You can use the flyer, "Why You Should Become A Knight", in the church vestibule to help a member join the Knights. My information is on it or he can scan the bar code for more information and/or join on line. Once he joins as a Online Member he can take the Exemplification of Charity, Unity and Fraternity and become an full member of the Knights of Columbus and our Council #8747.
