Celebrating the Solemnity of Corpus Christi

We celebrate on June 11 Corpus Christi Sunday, the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. Last year, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops launched the National Eucharistic Revival, a three-year grassroots revival of devotion and belief of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. The Eucharistic Revival has for its theme "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." (John 6:51)

Our Bishops believe that God wants to see a movement of Catholics across the United States, healed, converted, formed, and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist - and sent out in mission "for the life of the world." These three years will culminate in the first National Eucharistic Congress in the United States in almost fifty years. Almost a hundred thousand Catholics will join together in Indianapolis from July 17 - 21, 2024 for a once-in-a-lifetime pilgrimage toward the "source and summit" of our Catholic faith. It has for its Vision a grassroots movement of Catholics across the United States, healed, converted, formed, and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist—and sent out in mission "for the life of the world."

On the Diocesan level, Bishop Oscar Cantú announced in December 2021, that the Diocese of San José seeks to spiritually renew our local church at all levels. Our Bishop stated that the Eucharistic Revival is the heart of this renewal, which also includes the 2023 Diocesan Synod to discern the direction of the mission and ministry of the local church in Santa Clara County. Over the next three years, He made the call for every Catholic parish, school, apostolate, and family to be invited and be a part of this renewal. During the revival, there will be parish and diocesan initiatives such as Eucharistic adoration, processions, testimonials, catechesis for all ages, small groups, speakers, and other grassroots ideas to increase Catholics' understanding of the Real Presence in the Eucharist.

Here at Saint Elizabeth we have scheduled three Eucharistic Processions in addition to the Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and Solemn Benedictions. As Catholics, we believe in the Real Presence: that Jesus Christ is truly present – body, blood, soul, and divinity – in the Eucharist, under the appearances of bread and wine. A Eucharistic Procession is an opportunity to walk with the Blessed Sacrament through our Parish community. During a Eucharistic Procession, the priest carries the Eucharist in a monstrance and walks with the congregation following while singing and praying together. This is a perfect opportunity to grow in our own devotion to the Blessed Sacrament and to share our faith publicly. We also have an all-night Adoration with Parishioners and religious organizations and movements taking turns in prayer and thanksgiving before the Blessed Sacrament. As we celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi on this second year of National Eucharistic Revival, we continue to embark on this beautiful revival of the core of our faith for the next two years. Having these liturgy events this year, it is our hope and prayer that our parishioners will revive the love of the Eucharist in their own hearts. Come and join us.

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Dear Brother Knights,

Hope you are enjoying the weather. Seems like summer is just around the corner. Hoping everybody is fine and healthy.

Last month has been busy for us. We distributed flowers to all mothers attending the masses on May 13 and 14, 2023 and hope you had the chance to help in the distribution. I felt happiness from the mothers when handed the flowers and were so thankful receiving one.

On May 18 to 20, 2023, we attended the California State Meeting where we elected the next state officers for Columbian year 2023-2024 and the following were the elected officers:

1. State Deputy is Greg Marracq
2. State Secretary is James Larson
3. State Treasurer is Ken Rose
4. State Advocate is Vladimir Rivera
5. State Warden is T.W. Starkweather

(Our elected State Deputy for 2023-2024)

Our St. Joseph Assembly 2246 participated in the State Drill Competition but did not win it. But the members of the drill team were happy having been one of the competitors and received some good compliments from the public who appreciated their performance.

On May 29, 2023, Memorial Day, the Honor Guards were invited to participate in the Flag Raising Ceremony at the Milpitas City Hall.

At the same time, the Knights Sounds was at the Gates of Heaven Cemetery, at 22555 Cristo Rey Dr., Los Altos, CA.

What is important Brothers is in our recruitment of new members. We only need one new member to receive the Star Council Award. We know that if we exert a few efforts, we can get one. Do not hesitate to ask a friend, relatives or family members as the thing our order offer is for their benefit. Just ask them then give their names to Bro. Andy Dyson and let him do the rest.

Thank you so much my brother knights and we expect for your indispensable cooperation.

Stay strong and healthy.

Fraternally,
Bro. Manuel Mallabo III,
Grand Knight

PLEASE PRAY FOR:

Brother Bill Poehlman
Brother Skip Yenchik
Brother Timothy Crew
Brother Bill and wife Sally Paulsen
Rev. Paul Weisbeck
Brother Greg Dessel
Brother Ernesto Bautista
And all those listed in the Church Bulletin Prayer List.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Brother Knights,

I would like to thank each of our Brothers that helped during this Columbian year and ask each to remember his accomplishments so that we can continue our quest in helping those who are less fortunate than us and who needs our assistance. Remember, Charity is the first basic principle of our Order.

I would also like to ask our Brothers help this month during the Blood Drive on June 11, the Fathers Day prayer card distribution on June 17 & 18, and the Recruitment drive also on June 17 & 18. Also, please try to attend our last monthly Pot Luck and Social on June 19.

Our four Faith In Action Program Directors: (1) FAITH Director - Brother Khai Phan, (2) FAMILY Director - Brother Guillermo Uribe, (3) COMMUNITY Director - Brother Frank DeSmidt, and (4) LIFE Director - Brother Vinh Nguyen have submitted the latest information in their area of expertise which can be found in the current bulletin. All programs that our council participates in are positioned in one of these categories for reporting purposes to Supreme. If you have an interest in supporting one of these Programs please contact myself or the Director of that Program category.

Building the Domestic Church Theme for May is - SELF GIVING LOVE

The form of marital and family love is given by God himself, who is love. The Christian family, the domestic church, has been entrusted with the irreplaceable vocation of being the first school of human and divine love..

108 Scripture Reading -Psalm 119:1-3,9-12,33-38,105- A prayer to God, the Lawgiver.

Blessed those whose way is blameless, who walk by the law of the LORD.

Blessed those who keep his testimonies, who seek him with all their heart.

They do no wrong; they walk in his ways.

How can the young keep his way without fault? Only by observing your words.

With all my heart I seek you; do not let me stray from your commandments.

In my heart I treasure your promise, that I may not sin against you.

Blessed are you, O LORD; teach me your statutes. LORD, teach me the way of your statutes; I shall keep them with care.

Give me understanding to keep your law, to observe it with all my heart.

Lead me in the path of your commandments, for that is my delight.

Direct my heart toward your testimonies and away from gain.

Avert my eyes from what is worthless; by your way give me life.

For your servant, fulfill your promise made to those who fear you.

Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light for my path.

I make a solemn vow to observe your righteous judgments.

I am very much afflicted, LORD; give me life in accord with your word.

Accept my freely offered praise; LORD, teach me your judgments.

CULTURE OF LIFE NEWS

Liberators

What do kilobytes, megabytes, gigabytes, and mosquito bites have in common? All are part of our memories. The first three are mechanical, as in computers. A byte is a unit of computer storage—memory. A souped-up personal computer can store up to 128 gigabytes, over 128 trillion bytes of memory.

But that's nothing compared to our brains, where memories of those itchy mosquito bites are stored. The brain has about 90 billion nerve cells that together make trillions of connections. Computer guys needed 82,000 processors hooked into one of the world's fastest supercomputers to mimic only one second of normal brain activity! It's now believed that a brain can store one petabyte of information. It's as much as all the information on the worldwide Internet.

It's safe to say we store an incredible number of memories. Some we'd just as soon forget—like those seemingly million mosquito bites. Some things we are wise to forget. But some things, as bad as they were, we need to remember. That was so for Viktor Frankl, who recounted his memories in his 1959 book, Man's Search for Meaning. Frankl was an Austrian Jewish neurologist and psychiatrist, who in 1944 was transported with his family to the Auschwitz death camp in Poland, and later to other camps. After the war, he wrote about what he learned from his experiences.

Frankl observed in inmates different psychological experiences based on the length of time they spent in the camps. The incoming could not appreciate how bad their captivity would be. They learned. The SS put them into two lines. Those on the left were immediately sent to gas chambers. Those who could work were sent to showers; there they were beaten. Guards took everything they owned. Their bodies were entirely shaved; they were tattooed with numbers. "All we possessed, literally, was our naked existence." Up to 1,500 prisoners were stuffed into huts built for 200. Nine men would sleep on hard planks misnamed a bed. Many prisoners began to think that the gas chambers would provide welcome relief.

As their agonies continued, apathy set in. Starvation had depleted body and mind. Their lives wasting away, inmates lost all sense of horror and disgust over what was happening to others. The prisoners' defense mechanisms centered all emotions on self-preservation. Inmates scavenged corpses desperately hoping to find anything, if only a string for their worn-out shoes, to help them survive. Frankl saw a man cry like a baby at his lack of shoes in the bitterly cold winter while another sat nearby, contentedly eating a crust of bread. Frankl described himself as watching non-phased, eating his own meager rations, while almost-dead prisoners bounced dead bodies down steps, to be piled and later burned.

But through these horrors Frankl realized a saving truth: whoever knows the "why" to live can bear almost any "how" he lives. One evening, as 2,500 men were starved for not fingering a potato thief, Frankl talked about their greatest need: meaning. Prisoners died from the loss of hope caused by a lack of meaning. He told them that they needed to hold onto their memories, good and bad alike, to keep them going. They should not let the senselessness of their struggles detract from life's dignity and meaning. Instead, they should offer their suffering that others might be spared. And if they did not survive, they would know that the "Someone" watching them would be pleased with their sacrifices. When Frankl was done, tearful inmates limped to him in thanks for his words. He had given them meaning.

What Frankl saw in his camp is what we see in our culture: the loss of meaning. We do not search for meaning in our lives. We've stopped, or perhaps never even started. We live without real purpose, dabbling in the superficial, seeking the trendy places, the latest gismos, the power, fame, and money. But even when we find it, we just more find emptiness—nothing of lasting value. Committed only to self and never seeing the needs of others around us, we become like ravenous wolves or lost lambs. Like predators or prey.

It describes our abortion culture, one based solely on self. It extols a wrong-headed notion of freedom, which without any sense of responsibility has become its own horror show. Like the camp prisoners, the unborn have been stripped of humanity. All too often our culture treats the unborn as nothing more than unwelcome intrusions. Refusing to recognize that their lives can have meaning, our culture instead heaps them in buckets from where they end up in sewers, garbage dumps, and incinerators nationwide.

And we have sold out women. Our culture encourages them to surrender the gift uniquely theirs by birth: the gift of carrying human life. Rather than helping women to find the strength and courage needed to give meaning to their children's lives—and deeper meaning to their own—we stoke their fears. Our culture even tells women to celebrate their abortion, as if a mother's killing her own child is a moment of pride. Women caught in this trap must often fend for themselves. Left without hope, despair crushes them.

It comes down to us—the liberated. We, too, are abortion survivors; but for the grace of God, it could have been us. So we have our own choices to make. We can live in apathy to the needs of mother and child. Or we can be their liberators. We can take as our model the One sent by His Father to save us. By His suffering and death, Christ taught us the meaning of Love, and so the meaning of life. He calls us to sacrifice ourselves, to give meaning to our lives by helping other find meaning in theirs. In everyday ways—thoughts, words, prayers, and actions—we can resurrect to real life the memory of a once pro-life nation.

Easter-time looks to be corona-different this year. But we continue to celebrate the same resurrected Christ Who has given our lives meaning. We have work to do.

FRATERNAL INSURANCE AGENT'S CORNER

When June rolls around a couple of things come to my mind: grilling and graduations. Now these two things don't seem to have much in common. In fact, some may say they have nothing at all in common. It simply illustrates how amusingly my mind works. But let me expound a bit on both. Outdoor grilling comes on full force this time of year. Yes, in the warmer climates, there are those that grill all year round. Even in the colder climates, some make a point of outdoor grilling in the coldest of weather. But for most, June starts that season when the grill is often fired up and all the succulent goodness of charbroiled food is readied for the table. Now let me relate that to graduations: I've been to many graduation parties and there always seems to be that one person who is the designated grill master. Flipping hamburgers, turning hot dogs, kielbasa, and sausage, and tenderizing vegetables over an open flame for the celebrants. How's that for a segue? From grilling to graduations! The end of the school year means graduations. Some, from the lowest educational levels all the way to the highest. At whatever level you may fall, or your child may fall, I offer hearty congratulations! Graduating may mean moving up one more grade level or for some who are at the end of the educational journey, it might mean a step into a new career. Or maybe advancing in an already established career. Graduating has as a natural consequence, a moving on, taking the next step. Carefully preparing for a career, taking stock of talents and newfound knowledge, thinking of the impact your career may have on your family and the greater community; the graduate is ready!

I think of the work I do with my members and their families in the same way: getting you to graduate at the top of your class; well-prepared, knowledgeable, setting a course with impact for your family. Sitting down with me for a consultation starts the preparation. We can take stock of where you are and any recent changes in your situation with our state of the art financial needs analysis program. The end result is to help make sure you and your family are prepared: Prepared for the expected and the unexpected. The expected might be a comfortable retirement with adequate income to do the things you've always wanted to do. Being prepared for the unexpected is important, too: an untimely loss, an extended care event, a disability. Understanding the impact of having a strategy now is the first step in preparation.

My office will be calling soon to set up a time to get together a make sure you're set to graduate at the top of your class!

Vivat Jesus!

MEMBERSHIP NOTES

My Brothers,

We only need one more new member to reach out quota of 6 for the Columbian Year and achieve the honor of Star Council. June 17 & 18 we will be handing out Father's Day Prayer Cards which is a perfect time to hold a Recruitment Drive. So, say to someone you think would make a good Knight, "have you ever been asked to join the Knights of Columbus?" Then you can use the flyer, "Why You Should Become A Knight", in the church vestibule to help a member join the Knights. My information is on it to contact me or he can scan the bar code for more information and/or join on line. Once he joins as a Online Member he can take the Exemplification of Charity, Unity and Fraternity and become an full member of the Knights of Columbus and our Council #8747.
