The Tenth National Eucharistic Congress

This month will be a pivotal, unifying and transformative moment for the Church in the United States of America as the Tenth National Eucharistic Congress is taking place from July 17 to 20, 2024 at the Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis, Indiana. We are invited to experience a profound personal revival and to share Christ's love with a world that so desperately needs it.

The five-day Congress concluded on Sunday, June 20 with a Pontifical Mass with the Papal Legate to the National Eucharistic Congress, Luis Antonio Cardinal Tagle, the Filipino Prelate currently serving as Pro-Prefect for the Section of Evangelization of the Dicastery for Evangelization as Main Celebrant and Homilist. Our Bishop, the Most Reverend Oscar Cantú, has appointed me in my capacity as Vicar General and Chancellor of the Diocese as head of the Delegation from the Diocese of San Jose to this Congress.

The National Eucharistic Congress is a significant event for the Catholic Church in the United States. It is part of a larger initiative called the National Eucharistic Revival, which aims to rekindle and deepen faith in the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist among Catholics. A project of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), the National Eucharistic Congress is an opportunity for the faithful to deepen their understanding and belief in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. It seeks to address the challenges posed by a declining belief in this central tenet of Catholic faith.

The Eucharistic Congress serves as a catalyst for spiritual renewal and revitalization within the Church in the United States of America. It aims to inspire and equip Catholics to live more deeply Eucharistic lives, integrating the mystery of the Eucharist into their daily living. Gathering Catholics from across the nation fosters a sense of unity and community. It emphasizes the communal aspect of the Eucharist, bringing together people from diverse backgrounds to celebrate their shared faith. The Congress provides an opportunity for evangelization, both within the Church and to the broader society. By highlighting the importance and beauty of the Eucharist, it seeks to inspire Catholics to share their faith with others.

Each day of the congress will be packed with opportunities for personal transformation and life-giving. A variety of events and activities are planned in the National Eucharistic Congress and are designed to engage, educate, and inspire the participants. These include Masses and Liturgical Celebrations. Central to the Congress is the celebration of the Eucharist, with Masses to be presided over by bishops and with hundreds, if not thousands of priests concelebrating. These liturgical celebrations will be moments of profound communal worship and everything was just vibrant. Opportunities for Eucharistic adoration and benediction will also be provided, that would allow participants to spend time in prayer and reflection before the Blessed Sacrament.

The Congress will offer sessions on catechesis and teaching about the Eucharist. Well renowned theologians, bishops and speakers will give talks and workshops to deepen understanding of Eucharistic theology and spirituality. Added to that are Eucharistic processions and other public acts of witness that will be organized. This demonstrates the centrality of the Eucharist to Catholic life and faith. Special programs and activities for youth and families will also be made available, ensuring that people of all ages can participate and grow in their faith. There will be Exhibits featuring Catholic publishers, ministries, and organizations that will be presented. These exhibits will provide resources for further study and engagement with the Eucharist. More importantly, there will be ample opportunities for personal prayer and reflection that allowed participants to encounter Christ in the quiet of their hearts.

Overall, the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis will be a pivotal event aimed at renewing and deepening the faith of Catholics in the United States. By focusing on the central mystery of the Eucharist, it seeks to foster a more profound appreciation of Christ's presence among His people and to inspire a renewed commitment to living out the Eucharistic faith in daily life. I am so glad to be part of the National Eucharistic Congress and I truly look forward to it. Hope you follow it through EWTN and Catholic Radio.

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Worthy Brothers,

It is my honor to serve St. Elizabeth's council 8747 as your Grand Knight for this Columbian year 2024-25. We have had so many fabulous and dedicated Grand Knights in the past. I thank all of our brothers who trust me to lead this council again.

On behalf of our council, I want to send my deep appreciation to all officers and brother knights. Your hard work and dedication have made St. Elizabeth's council a Star Council once again. It was my honor to receive, on behalf of this council, four awards for all our accomplishments at the recent State convention. Under the continued guidance of our founder, the Blessed Michael J. McGiveny, I know we will accomplish our goals and overcome any challenges ahead.

I would like to mention some of the pillars of our success:

- 1) The Rev. Fr. Andy Ligot for his guidance and support;
- 2) Brother Manuel Mallabo III, our previous Grand Knight, for your excellent leadership and dedication;
- 3) Brother Andy Dyson, our Financial Secretary, is the heart and soul of St. Elizabeth's Council 8747. He has used his God-given talents to the maximum. As financial secretary, he made sure council keeps with changes, collects dues, and publishes our monthly newsletter. He has also raised significant funds for our council (for example, through Knight Sound DJ, Christmas card sales). The questions we will all face is who will step up to the plate to alleviate your workload and, someday, take over as financial secretary when you decide to retire your pen. Our council also deeply appreciates the work and sacrifices of your lady, Sharon.

4) Brother Charles Hudson, Treasurer and Activities Director. Without your prompt reports to Supreme and State, we would not receive all of the awards and recognition we have earned.

5) Brother Gwan Ali Santosa, PGK, Trustee, PWID Chair, and Blood Drive Coordinator. In your many years of leadership, our PWID fundraising has been top 10 in the state, and top two of the San Jose chapter. And the blood drives your coordinate have helped Stanford save so many lives.

6) Brother William Henzel, DGK, and Brother Greg Dessel, Trustee. Both of you have worked tirelessly for our parish and our council.

We have so many dedicated brothers working with us throughout the years. Forgive me if I have forgotten to name you and know that I appreciate your work and commitment. We are all salt of the earth, here to share our God given talents.

Vivat Jesus!

Fraternally,

Khai Phan

Grand Knight

PLEASE PRAY FOR:

Brother Gerry Valdivino

Brother Vinh T. Nguyen

Brother Melchor Baclig

Brother Bill Poehlman

Brother Skip Yenchik

Brother Timothy Crews

Brother Bill Paulsen

Rev. Paul Weisbeck

Brother Greg Dessel

Brother Ernesto Bautista

And all those listed in the Church Bulletin Prayer List.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Brother Knights,

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate our newly elected officers for the Columbian Year 2024-2025. The New Officer assignments are listed in this bulletin. I will continue helping with the Service Program Director position until a decision is made by our Grand Knight as to who our new Director will be. We may also need to assign a new Director in some of our Faith in Action Program slots as there are indications that some of our current ones have work issues that interfere in the leadership duties required. If you would like to volunteer your time with us please let me or our Grand Knight know.

I would also like to thank each of our Brothers who helped during this past Columbian year and ask each to remember his accomplishments so that we can continue our quest in helping those who are less fortunate than us and who needs our assistance. Remember, Charity is the first basic principle of our Order.

Our four Faith In Action Program Directors currently are: (1) FAITH Director - Brother Khai Phan, (2) FAMILY Director - Brother Guillermo Uribe, (3) COMMUNITY Director - Brother Frank DeSmidt, and (4) LIFE Director Brother Vinh Nguyen - Each of these Brothers submit the latest information in their area of expertise which can be found in the current bulletin. All Programs that our council participates in are positioned in one of these categories for reporting purposes to Supreme. If you have any suggestions for an event or have an interest in supporting any of our current Programs please contact the Director of that Program category or myself.

Building the Domestic Church Theme for July is - WITNESSING TO THE FAITH

Because families play an indispensable role in the new evangelization, we want to share our faith with other families and those who are far away from God.

Scripture Reading - Psalm 148:1-6, 11-13

A song of praise to the Lord

Praise him, all you his angels; give praise, all you his hosts.

Praise him, sun and moon; praise him, all shining stars.

Praise him, highest heavens, you waters above the heavens.

Let them all praise the LORD's name; for he commanded and they were created,

Praise the LORD from the heavens; praise him in the heights.

Assigned them their station forever, set an order that will never change.

Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all who govern on earth;

Young men and women too, old and young alike.

Let them all praise the LORD's name, for his name alone is exalted,

His majesty above earth and heaven.

Following is a summary of the council events for the month of June 2024

June 1 & 2 was our council's Altar Server recognition weekend where awards was presented at each of the masses by our council Brothers.

June 3 our council held the Officers/Programs meeting at 7:00 pm followed by the Business Meeting at 7:30 pm in the St. Christopher room & Online.

June 9 we held our council sponsored Blood Drive for St. Elizabeth Church that took place in the St Elizabeth Parking lot.

June 10 June 24 was our last scheduled council Family Pot Luck & Recognition Social for the Columbian year 2023 - 2024. Attendance was on the low side, however everyone in attendance had a good time.

Following is a description of the council events scheduled for the month of July 2024

July 1 our council will hold the Officers/Programs meeting at 7:00 pm followed by the Business Meeting at 7:30 pm in the St. Christopher room & Online. All our council Brothers are encouraged to attend and get the updated information on the new Columbian year (2024 - 2025) activities. Online meetings are coordinated by our Financial Secretary, Brother Sir Knight Andy Dyson. If you will need online access to the meeting please contact him at adysonjr@comcast.net.

July 4 is Independence Day. Fly your flag and have a great and safe 4th.

July 8 our St. Joseph Assembly #2246 will hold the Officers/Programs meeting at 7:00 pm followed by the Business Meeting at 7:30 pm in the St. Christopher room & Online. All our Assembly #2246 Sir Knights are encouraged to attend and get the updated information on the new Columbian year (2024 - 2025) activities.

July 27 all Sir Knights of St. Joseph Assembly #2246 are invited to attend the annual Past Faithful Navigator's Dinner in Honor of our Past Faithful Navigator SK Florante Del Rosario. The event will take place at the Omega Family Restaurant & Lounge. There will be a No Host Social Hour at 5:00 pm followed by dinner at 6:00 pm and awards later. Dinner cost is $40 per person. Please plan to attend and Honor SK Rosario for the evening. RSVP to SK Andy Dyson at adysonjr@comcast.net by Wednesday, July 24 if you can attend.

If you would like to share with me your ideas for the council or committees, have comments, suggestions, complaints or perhaps just need to talk, I can be reached by email at cnudson@sbcglobal.net or on my Cell: (408) 881-3444.

CULTURE OF LIFE NEWS

“Male and Female He Created Them”

“God created man in his own image. . . . male and female he created them. And God blessed them, saying: “Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it.” (Gn 1:27 & 28)

The above lines from Genesis have always been hallowed by Jews and Christians, providing countless generations with a faith-based understanding of humanity. The Lord God is our source of being. Both men and women are made in his image and therefore of inestimable dignity, equality, and worth.

“The Lord God said: “It is not good for man to be alone. I will make a suitable partner for him.” (Gn 2:18)

“Then the Lord God cast a deep sleep upon the man, and while he was fast asleep, he took one of his ribs, and closed up its place with flesh. And the Lord God then built up into a woman the rib that he had taken from the man. When he brought her to the man, the man said: “At last, this one is bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. . . . That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one body.” (Gn 2:21-24)

Expanding on the above teaching, the Holy Father notes “knowledge of humanity passes through masculinity and femininity.” In other words, we can't understand ourselves individually as men or women if we don't have each other. When the author of Genesis says that “the Lord God then built up into a woman the rib that he had taken from the man,” and “brought her to the man,” he revealed God's critical intention--man was to have a partner like himself in dignity but also different from him in every way--especially on a physical level. And the author tells us that the man himself recognized this as a good exclaiming “at last, this is bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh!”

This sacred story not only supplies a clear anthropology, but it serves as the foundational teaching on the marriage relationship as willed by God. This relationship between a man and a woman is a tremendous blessing, as are the children God entrusts to them. Indeed, throughout scripture the marital relationship is so sacred that the prophets often use it as an analogy to explain God's relationship with His people.

In March, Reform Jewish leaders approved a resolution allowing rabbis to preside at homosexual “commitment ceremonies.” Rabbi Charles Kroloff, said that the resolution is indicative of the group's belief that “gay and lesbian Jews, and the committed relationships they form with their partners, deserve the recognition and respect due to people created in the image of God.” One has to wonder how the belief that all human beings, made in God's image, and deserving of respect and recognition, has become confused with God's design for marriage? Perhaps the answer lies in two areas--unconditional acceptance of historical critical methods of biblical study and an uncritical melding together of a permissive American culture with an historically more careful religious tradition.

The 20th century has seen the refinement of scholarly methods for studying the bible. These efforts have been to peel away the historical buildup (that which was created by people) to get at the divinely inspired message. This has helped us to better understand the fullness of God's revelation. However, too often scholars forget that the stories of the bible are not mere stories, but vehicles through which timeless truths are communicated by God to his people.

In order to avoid critical errors, anyone engaged in such academic study must be a person of prayer, a person very much in close communion with or part of, the faith community. A common error is reliance on reason alone and allowing cultural bias to overshadow scripture's meaning. In regard to the Reform Jewish Rabbis' resolution, The Washington Post notes that “The Torah calls homosexuality an abomination . . . But the Reform movement has always believed in adapting Judaism to the realities of modern America” (March 30, 2000). If one adapts scripture to the realities of modern America without any critique of our culture, one risks enshrining specific cultural ideas and not seeing God's will.

Faith communities are in the midst of strife trying to define or redefine marriage. And civil society wrestles as well. Vermont's Supreme Court recently ruled that same-sex partners must be granted the same rights as heterosexual married couples and now is trying to figure out “how to define” marriage. Hawaii, on the other hand, has defined it as a union of a man and a woman. It is excruciatingly clear that we are becoming a confused people. We have, it seems, dissected scripture to the point of human manipulation. We substitute cultural rallying cries--“gay rights,” “choice,” “contraceptive sex,”--with God's teachings to respect every human being, to protect innocent human lives, to be chaste and open to children in marriage.

We need to read scripture with minds and hearts open so that we might truly know what God is saying to us. Homosexual men and women can never have a marriage in the biblical sense, but they are our brothers and sisters who deserve respect as children of God, and human rights accorded on the basis of our humanity. But God's teaching about marriage is clear: “male and female He made them” blessing them to be “fruitful and multiply.” God's will for marriage is the totality of humanity--male and female, united in him and open to life.

FRATERNAL INSURANCE AGENT'S CORNER

Brothers,

I'm reaching out to share some wonderful news with you and your family.

Knights of Columbus Asset Advisors LLC ("KoCAA"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Knights of Columbus, launched a series of Model Portfolios, utilizing our suite of faith-based mutual funds, specifically for Catholics. These investment solutions were designed to allow Catholic investors an opportunity to grow their assets without compromising their faith and values.

Please note that mutual fund investing involves risk. Some mutual funds have more risk than others. The investment return and principal value will fluctuate and shares when sold may be worth more or less than the original cost.

KoCAA's family of mutual funds follow the investment guidelines of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops ("USCCB"). The five themes included in these guidelines are:

- Protecting human life
- Promoting human dignity
- Enhancing the common good
- Pursuing economic justice
- Saving our global common home

So, whether your goal is to save for college, buy a home or prepare for retirement, you can be confident that your investments align with your personal values.

I will be reaching out to you to set up a time to discuss this opportunity and what it may mean for you and your family.

Thank you,
Fraternally,

MEMBERSHIP/RECRUITMENT

My fellow Brother Knights of St. Elizabeth Council 8747, recruitment of new Brother Knights remains a viable life line to the Knights of Columbus and specifically to our Council. Unfortunately, as of this writing, we fell short of our new membership goal for Fraternal Year 2023 – 2024 of 6. But, fortunately we are still eligible for Star Council, because our Grand Knight recruited 3 new members giving us the minimum of 5. I'd like to thank all of our Brother Knights who helped with the church recruitment drive and your efforts in the recruitment of new members.

Fraternal Year 2024 – 2025 brings new opportunities for recruitment. As members of our council, I would like to get your input as to what we could have done differently during FA 2023-2024 in our recruitment efforts so as to implement a different recruitment strategy.

Remember, recruitment is a 24/7/365 proposition and we must serve as evangelist for our Order and Council. The best practice for recruiting new members, is 1 on 1 communication. Let us practice by taking the opportunity to share the benefits of joining our Council. If you belong to any of the church ministries, share with any of the ministry members your experience with the Knights of Columbus; benefits offered through the Knights of Columbus and your own personal experience and why you joined the Knights of Columbus.

In closing, the message is RECRUIT, RECRUIT AND RECRUIT!

Fraternally yours,
Brother David Ojeda
Membership Director/Recruitment Chairman

COUNCIL FUNDRAISER
CHAIRMAN NOTES

Brother Knights of Council 8747,

Last Fraternal Year we were able to fundraise $436 by participating in the March 5th, Presidential elections. This fraternal year we will once again have the opportunity to participate in the November 5th General Elections. The Registrar of Voters team is diligently working and organizing for this event. The Registrar of Voters has given us an early opportunity to sign up and participate. Following are two opportunities, please consider volunteering:

Opportunity 1: from Oct 26 - Nov 5: location is the Milpitas Library - Auditorium (6PM PICK UP) - 160 N Main St, Milpitas, CA 95035.

The condition to accept this opportunity is that we must as an organization, take all 11 days of pick-up and drop off at the Berger location. Again, this pays $65 per event plus mileage.

Any combination of volunteers for 11 consecutive days will meet the requirement.

Opportunity 2: a 4-day Vote Center, at Christ Community Church of Milpitas- Sequoia - 1000 S Park Victoria Dr, Milpitas, CA 95035 from Nov 2-Nov 5.

Another opportunity to fundraise is by volunteering at Levi Stadium Concession Stands. The stipend is $225 per 8 hour event.

You may contact me by e-mail at davidojeda09@yahoo.com or on my mobile phone 1-408-204-3129 or Brother Andy Dyson with your interest to volunteer or with any questions.

Fraternally yours,
Brother David Ojeda
