Living Each Moment of Our Life for Jesus

A couple of weeks ago, I made a list of the things I needed to do before my two-week vacation and also the things I need to bring with me for my trip. I had to write in advance my articles for the Parish Bulletin and do all the Liturgy Plan way ahead of time. I needed to make sure I had my Passport and other travel documents to travel abroad. Most of us believe in the importance of preparation not only for many uncertainties but also for the important events of our lives.

I read of a story that happened in 1870, when the State of Connecticut was enveloped by a mysterious darkness. The same thought came to all: The Last Day had arrived. In the House of Representatives members were heard asking for an adjournment so that they could go home and wait the Lord's coming together with their families. The Chairman, Colonel Davenport, made a short speech: "Either it is the day of Judgment or not. If not, there is no need for adjournment. If it were the Day of Judgment, I would rather be found doing my duty. I wish candles to be brought."

The parable of today's gospel August 7, the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time focuses on the unpredictable return of Jesus and our need to be prepared for his return. He's saying to us, "Ready or not, here I come." Normally when we think of being ready, we usually think of being prepared for the worst that could happen: locks on the door in case of thieves, life jackets in the event of a boat accident.

Isn't it interesting that most of us believe in preparation for many uncertainties, but not with the most important event of our lives? We carry a spare tire in our car as preparation for a flat. We have insurance in preparation for a theft, fire trucks in preparation for a fire. Airline stewards provide pre-flight instruction in preparation for turbulent weather and we seek education in preparation for a good job. Preparation in our society is a sign of wisdom. But think about this. Of all the preparations that we make for the things I just mentioned, not a single one is a certainty – yet we feel compelled to prepare ourselves for them.

The return of Jesus is a certainty. We can never know precisely when he will return or when we will die, but his return is certain. We must constantly watch, being always faithful and ready so that we may be found worthy to share in the heavenly banquet he has prepared for us. So the question of the parable is not whether or not Christ is coming again, or when he is coming, or even how he is coming. The point is about being prepared for his coming and ready to receive him whenever he comes, now or later.

In the road of life which we follow, there are many uncertainties and distractions. We don't know where the road will take us; we don't know when it will end. But one thing is certain. At the end of life's journey; our Lord will be there to meet us, to welcome us into the heavenly kingdom...IF we have prepared ourselves. Preparation cannot be a "sometime" thing but living each moment of our life for Jesus. If we can do that, we will be prepared to greet our Master whenever comes.

How can one be prepared in this matter? If you can still when Jesus talks about the last judgment, he makes it clear that this preparedness would be measured by our readiness to serve the people we meet. He said: "What you do to the least of my brothers and sisters, you do this unto me." We have to complete the task entrusted to us every day and be at peace with and at the service of our neighbor now, to be ready for his second coming.

Another one is let us be faithful to the life and mission of Jesus as we await the end time, His second coming. Despite criticisms, rejection, pain and suffering, let us remain faithful to the Love of the Father as Jesus did. Let us fulfill the mission entrusted to us, that is, to proclaim God's reign to all. God loves faithfulness and rewards those who are faithful to Him. What is faithfulness? It means keeping one's word, promise and commitment no matter how tough or difficult it gets. Faithfulness is a character trait of God and one that he expects of us.

Chaplain

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

My Brother Knights,

Warm greetings and compliments to you all Brothers.

Hope everybody is coping up with the hot weather, the surge of Covid again and the new monkey pox virus. Please follow still the guidelines we have been doing for the past to avoid getting sick and stay healthy and strong always.

This past month of July, 2022, our Council has been very busy assisting the Parish to sell raffle tickets for our Parish Festival and as a matter of fact, we took charge of selling tickets in all of the masses on July 16 and 17, 2022. We can assist also by volunteering after the mass to sell tickets and if you got some tickets through the mail, please turn them in. I would like to remind you that the Parish Festival will be on the 14th of August, 2022 and you can volunteer to help by signing up in front of the church after the mass. We will need some help to in manning our own booth during the festival. We will be responsible in selling sodas and water.

On that same weekend, we conducted our membership drive and according to Bro. Andy Dyson, our Financial Secretary, we were able to recruit one member.

Yes we need more members and we could hardly find one. Please if you know somebody who is qualified, just give their names and contact numbers to Bro. Andy and we will contact them. We have distributed a lot of flyers but nobody came on information night, so the only way we can get them is to approach them as a group.

Every year, the Supreme Council encourages us to deliver help to the community and as such, they have established some guidelines in doing so. And if we meet the minimum requirements, the Council is awarded a Star Council Award which is always the goal of each and every councils of the order.

In order to get that award, we must accomplish the following requirement:

1. We must achieve the Fr. McGivney Award (Membership Growth) – 6% growth in membership, which is a minimum of 6 members, maximum 15;
2. We must achieve the Founders Award (Insurance Growth) – Host 2 Fraternal Benefits Seminar (virtual or in person). Minimum of 7 members or member eligible attendees per event.

3. We must achieve the Columbian Award (Programs) – At least 16 programs credits – four in each of the four Faith in Action Categories.

On our next meeting, we will be discussing what programs we are going to do, so please try to attend our next meeting and share your inputs and will discuss the propriety of each suggestion. So we are expecting to see each and everyone on our next meeting.

As a brother knight, we are expected to participate in all of the activities of the church and our services are badly needed at our Parish Festival. Please find time to volunteer to help, it is our festival anyway.

See you next meeting and please stay healthy and strong.

Vivat Jesus,
Bro. Manuel Mallabo III, Grand Knight

PLEASE PRAY FOR:

Brother Timothy Crews-Says, Thanks you for all your prayers.

Brother Guillermo Uribe, Says, Thanks you for all your prayers.

Brother Bill and wife Sally Paulsen

Rev. Paul Weisbeck

Brother Greg Dessel

Brother Ernesto Bautista

Brother Bill Poehlman

And all those listed in the Church Bulletin Prayer List.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Brother Knights,

I would like to take this opportunity to remind our Brother Knights and families that St Elizabeth will be holding their 11th Annual Festival on Sunday August 14 starting at 9:00 AM and ending at 5:00 PM. Stop by after you attend mass and enjoy the entertainment.

For this month let me say that the FAITH category goal is to strengthen our men and their families in the Catholic faith and should strive to arm us for the spiritual battle they face daily. The goal within the LIFE category is to defend the dignity of each human being at every stage of life. Respect for the dignity of life demands a commitment to human rights across a broad spectrum.

The four categories (FAITH, FAMILY, COMMUNITY and LIFE) require the council to have a director for and guide the execution of the programs within that category. We need to verify to Supreme that we have directors and programs to remain eligible for the STAR AWARD.

Please continue to follow the articles in this current bulletin for the contributions from our four Faith In Action Program categories Directors: (1) FAITH Director - Brother Manuel Mallabo, (2) FAMILY Director - Brother Guillermo Uribe, (3) COMMUNITY Director - Brother Frank DeSmidt, and (4) LIFE Director - Brother Vinh Nguyen. All programs that our council participates in are positioned in one of these categories for reporting purposes to Supreme.

Building the Domestic Church Theme for JULY is - HOSPITALITY

Scripture speaks frequently about the importance of a family's hospitality because of its life-giving love that nourishes weary souls and heals broken hearts..

Scripture Reading — Psalm 84:9-13

A praise of God's house

LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer; listen, God of Jacob.

O God, watch over our shield; look upon the face of your anointed.

Better one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere.

Better the threshold of the house of my God than a home in the tents of the wicked.

For a sun and shield is the LORD God, bestowing all grace and glory.

The LORD withholds no good thing from those who walk without reproach.

O LORD of hosts, blessed the man who trusts in you!

Following is a summary of the council events for the month of July 2022:

July 11 our council held an Officers/Programs meeting at 7:00 pm followed by the Business Meeting in the St. Christopher room & Online.

July 16 & 17 held our first Recruitment weekend for the new Columbian year (2022 - 2023) and sold Church Festival Raffle Tickets outside the church after each mass .

July 18 our St. Joseph Assembly 2246 members attended their monthly Officers / Business meeting in the St. Christopher & Online at 7:00 pm.

Following is a description of the council events scheduled for the month of August 2022:

August 8 our council will hold our Officers/Programs meeting at 7:00 pm followed by the Business Meeting in the St. Christopher room & Online.

August 14 will be the St. Elizabeth Parish festival from 9:00 am until 5:00 pm. The Knights and Boy Scout troops will again be servicing the refreshments booth with water & soda along with helping clean up all day. And our St. Elizabeth Knight Sounds will be providing the sound system and music. Come and have fun while you support your parish. If you can help in any way, contact Andy Dyson, 408-263-5156 or adysonjr@comcast.net.

August 15 our St. Joseph Assembly 2246 members can attend their monthly Officers / Business meeting in the St. Christopher room & Online at 7:30 pm.

If you would like to share with me your ideas for the council or committees, have comments, suggestions, complaints or perhaps just need to talk, I can be reached by email at cnhudson@sbcglobal.net or on my Cell: (408) 881-3444.

CULTURE OF LIFE NEWS

Where Are We?

Six bucks a gallon. It's not a bad dream. It's reality—at least for now. People are thinking twice about getting in their vehicles. It'll be interesting to see if motorcycle sales rise. But summer is in full swing, and for most people, that means vacation season. Americans love to travel; it's in our blood. So though we'll complain about gas prices, most of us will still get in those vehicles. Autumn will be here all too soon.

At one time or other, we've taken a long road trip. It's an experience. There's the joyful anticipation that comes with the planning. Then the packing for all kinds of weather. Finally, the big day comes and we're off. We can usually make it out of our driveway, out of town, and even out of state, pretty easily. Then we hit the border, and confidence starts to wain. Nothing looks familiar. Google Maps is confusing. We take a wrong turn here, a wrong road there. We miss a detour sign. We find ourselves crossing a bridge 50 miles from where we belong. The yelling starts—or intensifies. We finally ask ourselves: Where are we?

Life is like a road trip. For most people, it can be pretty long. That leaves plenty of chances for getting lost along the way. And we all do. A wrong decision here, a missed opportunity there. Plenty of distractions that take our focus off our destination. Thankfully, there are people along the way who can help get us back on track. They say the right things. They show us the right paths.

What's true for individuals has also been true for civilizations throughout human history: they get lost. Some have fizzled out rather quickly. Once great cultures flourished for a time, stagnated, then regressed and disappeared. Oftentimes, they lacked staying power because no one could bring them back to what was important.

One week ago, the U.S. Supreme Court overturned a decision that for 50 years had wrongly given women a constitutional license to kill their unborn children, no questions asked. Roe v. Wade was the crown jewel of the sexual revolution. It gave legal cover to the lie that women are slaves to their biology, victims of their anatomy. It allowed women to embrace the falsehood that true freedom and fulfillment lay in "choice," the universal code word for killing. Women were too eager to lay claim to their own private "right" to question the notion. Men were too weak to challenge it.

Now 50 years post-Roe, where are we a country and culture? For now, is apparent: we're lost. We're lost because we no longer seem to understand our role in the epic story of mankind. Quite simply, our role is to carry the torch of life until it's our time to pass it to those who will follow us. And more, our role is to bring them forth and prepare them carry on better than we did. We take from the past to give to the future. It is vital and noble work we do.

Each of us is important to the process. But as a culture, we have lost sight of it. We make lesser life more important than human life. Destroying the egg of a sea turtle will result in fines of up to $100,000 and imprisonment for up to one year. Intentionally destroying a bald or golden eagle egg is cheaper at $5,000, but the time behind bars can be as long. There's everything good about protecting sea turtles and eagles, but when the law treats killing an unborn human as a fundamental freedom, our priorities are way out of whack.

What is even more disturbing is the wanton destruction of crisis pregnancy centers. They give pregnant women fearful of the future a chance to regroup, build up courage, see friendly faces, and gain valuable resources. They give women what they are most lacking—hope. Women go to the centers voluntarily because they want and need to be there. They go by choice. So why are the very people claiming to support "choice" depriving women of it?

Perhaps it's because after 50 years of being told that children are punishments, people have come to believe it. Today, children are seen as burdens on our time and energy, strains on our pocketbooks, intruders on our dreams, and menaces to our lifestyles. In short, they are in the way. Abortion is about self. The abortion mentality is summarized in three words: Kill the problem. Unhealthy baby? Kill it. Bad for the career? Kill it. Wanted a boy? Kill it. Finances tight? Kill it. Too many kids? Kill it? Wrong guy? Kill it. Didn't want one? Kill it. Whatever the reason, the answer is always the same: pardon denied, death by execution.

Moral life has a different mentality: Work the problem. In doing it, we find Godly fulfillment. Our greatest satisfactions come from helping others, particularly those in most need. And so our greatest sense of fulfillment is in them. To bring an unborn to birth is a burden, sacrifice, and struggle all in one. But its joy is unspeakable. Raising a child takes time, effort, and money, but provides a genuine pride that can't be matched. Children allow us to express our true selves. They bring out our best because they require us to be at our best. They help us to be who we are called to be—people of courage, strength, justice, mercy, and love.

When our history is written, our names will not be recorded. But we can take satisfaction in knowing that we helped rebuild a culture that got lost along the way. We put it back on the right road and in the right direction. It won't be easy. But the road will lead us back Home.

MEMBERSHIP NOTES

My Brothers,

During our membership drive on the weekend of July 16 & 17, we also sold Raffle Tickets for the church Festival and had one prospect interested in becoming a member of our council.

Don't forget, the best way for us to get new members is for you to ask them.

you can use the flyer, "Why You Should Become A Knight", in the church vestibule to help a member join the Knights. My information is on it or he can scan the bar code for more information and/or join on line. Once he joins as a Online Member he can take the Exemplification of Charity, Unity and Fraternity and become a full member of the Knights of Columbus and our Council #8747.

FRATERNAL INSURANCE AGENT'S CORNER

My Dear Brother Knights, Friends and Reverend Fathers,

It's been quite some time since I've sent out a mass e-mail message, so I hope this e-mail finds you well. I pray that you are healthy and in good spirits.

For the past two years, I have employed a caller/scheduler to call and schedule appointments on my behalf. Many of you have been great to respond and, for that, I thank you.

If you have life insurance, retirement, or long-term care insurance with the Knights of Columbus, this will likely be a call to meet for your annual review. If you are not an account holder with the Order, this will likely be a call to meet and update you on what's currently offered by the Knights. If you have any experience meeting or speaking with me, you will know that my approach is never high pressure. It is the Order's mission and obligation to make sure every Knight is informed of his and his family's, Fraternal Benefits.

Reaching out to our members (at least once a year) has been my practice for the nearly two decades I have been an agent with the Order. This is just another way to connect to you - my Brother Knights - in a more efficient way. This is legitimate and by no means a scam call.

If you receive a call or text message on my behalf, I sincerely hope you respond with an openness to meet with me. As always, I offer Zoom, in-home or phone appointments at your convenience.

Knights of Columbus offers highly rated, dynamic, and extremely competitive financial products to members, their wives and family. Best of all, this is a Catholic company; Your company. One who gives back and operates with Catholic values and ethics.

I look forward to speaking to you soon.
God Bless and Vivat Jesus!!!
