A Season of Peace and Love

We are now in the month of December and before we know it, it will be Christmas Day. More than 2,000 years ago the world lived its first Christmas. The Messiah whose coming was announced for thousands of years had finally arrived but not showing of his majesty and power as was expected. Instead he arrived clothed in poverty in a stable in a manger. When Jesus born the local authorities did even know that the King of Kings had been born into the world.

During these few days with Thanksgiving Day and Black Friday Sale in many big box stores and Shopping Malls, we have spent a lot of time and money shopping. We have seen how beautifully the store windows have been decorated and we've bought a lot of gifts for Christmas. All of this preparation will bring us to the 25th of December, the date on which all of us will be able to say with joy, "Merry Christmas!" As we prepare for Christmas, we will have last-minute preparations and we will be tempted to spend more than our budget allows and, sometimes, to spend more than we should. The outpouring of lights and decorations around us is not at all like the stable in Bethlehem where Joseph and Mary prepared themselves as best as they could so that their Son, our Redeemer, could be born.

The Christmas season is a time of happiness, a season to be enjoyed and celebrated. But it is also true that we should always remember to whom we owe this great holy day, the center of this celebration. Christmas is primarily a celebration of the birth of the Incarnate Word, the Prince of Peace, the Savior sent to redeem us, Jesus Christ Himself. He came to establish a Kingdom of Peace and love.

For peace and love to reign in our homes we don't have to spend money as if it were going out of style, following the latest fad, as if we had lost all sense of responsibility. Simple celebrations surrounded by the family showing our love and faith in the Child Jesus can be much happier. But, "How can we do this?" we ask ourselves. Well, remember if you will, how, when we were children our families went to see the Crèche scenes in the churches. And, of course, the center of each one of these was the manger with the Baby Jesus. It would be beautiful if we could return to our old customs and take our children to see the Crèche scenes explaining to them where and when Jesus was born.

Living this holiday season in peace, even though we don't have an abundance of material wealth in our homes, is the most beautiful thing that we can do. But, unfortunately, for some people, this Christmas season, like others in the past, won't be like that. For many homes God does not exist. People who don't celebrate Christmas with God in mind think of this season as empty and loud. They don't experience the fullness of love and peace that the birth of Our Lord among us should bring. In a word, for people like this, the days of Christmas are sad and boring days. But for us Christians these should be days of prayer and unity. We know that these two things are what will bring us true happiness and enduring peace.

Just remembering that more than 2000 years ago, our Savior was born, is enough motive for us to be happy.

The coming of the Messiah is, in itself, the central event of the Christmas season. Christ came to bring us the most precious of gifts of this life, salvation. In this Holy Mass in which we celebrate together the birth of Christ, let us promise, for this New Year, which is fast approaching, to make the Messiah the absolute center of our lives. May you all have a wonderful Christmas. You are dearly remembered in my prayers.

Fraternally,
Rev. Andy C. Ligot, JCD

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

My Brother Knights,

Can't just imagine, it's almost the end of the year already and hope everyone is in their good health, spirit and strength ready for this approaching winter season.

This month of December, we will be celebrating Christmas, and as Christians, we celebrate it as the birth of our Lord, Jesus Christ. It is a time for spiritual reflection on the important foundations of the Christian faith. It is a celebration of God's love for the world through the birth of the Christ child, Jesus.

At present time, Christmas is a celebration, a time for giving and not simply a day we exchange gifts. It is in the spirit of togetherness. It is in the thought to which you put into thinking about others. It's a selfless time where we forgive. Take stock of what's important and become better versions of ourselves.

So, being a good Christian this Christmas is to give one's very self, to think only of others, how to bring the greatest happiness to others. Hope as a member of the Knights of Columbus, we keep this in mind on this coming Christmas.

For the past month of November, our Council has been busy with several projects. The first being the call on the Knight Sounds at Cavalry Cemetery. All systems on the go before the mass started, but when the mass started, it was not only rain but soaking rain and when the mass ended, the rain also stopped. Good, Bro. Andy is all prepared rain or shine.

On November 12, 13, 19 and 20, we had our "Keep Christ in Christmas Card Sales" in all weekend masses. The sales on the advent candles were good but not much on the Christmas cards. Little did we know that people prefer sending e-cards instead of the traditional Christmas cards. More so that the mailing stamps are expensive. If the Keep Christ in Christmas Program is to continue, we need more volunteers.

Well, brothers, there will be more projects to be undertaken by our Council and we need your assistance. We hope this Christmas season will change your mind and try to spare a little of your time to volunteer on our projects. If you are thinking of helping others, you need not go anywhere else, the Council has it.

Just an advance notice, there will be a joint Christmas Party celebration, December 19, by the Council and the Assembly and the Assembly has passed around sign-up sheets for the potluck, so please save that day and join us in our celebration. It is a good time to meet brothers from other Councils. Andy will have the sign-up sheet ready at our meeting on December 5.

By the way on our next meeting, December 5, 2022, we will start at 6:30 pm, an hour earlier because of Installation of Officers, so I enjoin all officers to be present.

Hope to see everybody on our next meeting, have a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all.

Vivat Jesus,

Bro. Manuel Mallabo III,
Grand Knight

PLEASE PRAY FOR:

Brother Skip Yenchik

Brother Timothy Crews

Brother Bill and wife Sally Paulsen

Rev. Paul Weisbeck

Brother Ernesto Bautista

Brother Bill Poehlman

And all those listed in the Church Bulletin Prayer List.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Brother Knights,

In the Catholic liturgical calendar, the New Year begins this year on November 27, the first Sunday of the Advent Season. Our families and parishes celebrate the start of this season by lighting the first of four candles on their Advent wreath. This first candle has become known as the Prophet's Candle and symbolizes HOPE; "Prophet" refers to Isaiah who foresaw the coming of the messiah. The second Advent candle is known as the Bethlehem Candle and symbolizes FAITH or Preparation, as we prepare for the coming of Jesus. The candle lit on the third Sunday of Advent is known as the Shepherds Candle and symbolizes the JOY which the angels proclaimed when Jesus was born. Lastly, the fourth Advent candle is known as the Angel's Candle and symbolizes the PEACE or the LOVE for which Jesus came to earth.

The Advent season is a time for preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and also to the anniversary of the Lord's birth on Christmas. Take time during this busy season to reflect on the scripture readings for the Sundays of Advent. Adopt as your Advent resolution the promise to set aside a few minutes each day for quiet prayer, spiritual reading or reflection during this Advent time. Make it a point during Advent to forgive someone who has hurt you and ask forgiveness of anyone you may have hurt.

Also unite yourselves with Our Lady so that Advent will truly become a time when each person awaits the birth of the Christ Child in his or her heart.

Please continue to follow the articles in this current bulletin for the contributions from our four Faith In Action Program categories Directors: (1) FAITH Director - Brother Khai Phan, (2) FAMILY Director - Brother Guillermo Uribe, (3) COMMUNITY Director - Brother Frank DeSmidt, and (4) LIFE Director - Brother Vinh Nguyen. All programs that our council participates in are positioned in one of these categories for reporting purposes to Supreme. If you have an interest in supporting one of these Programs please contact myself or the Director of that Program category.

Building the Domestic Church Theme for December is - Joy

Joy is an attribute of God's divine love. To reflect

God in our family life, we are called to be joyful by developing our relationship with Christ.

Scripture Reading — Psalm 33:1-7, 20-22

A prayer of praise and rejoicing before the Lord.

Rejoice, you righteous, in the LORD; praise from the upright is fitting.

Give thanks to the LORD on the harp; on the ten-stringed lyre offer praise.

Sing to him a new song; skillfully play with joyful chant.

For the LORD's word is upright; all his works are trustworthy.

He loves justice and right. The earth is full of the mercy of the LORD.

By the LORD's word the heavens were made; by the breath of his mouth all their host.

He gathered the waters of the sea as a mound; he sets the deep into storage vaults.

Our soul waits for the LORD, he is our help and shield.

For in him our hearts rejoice; in his holy name we trust.

May your mercy, LORD, be upon us; as we put our hope in you.

CULTURE OF LIFE NEWS

One Nation, Under God

All the man wanted was a quarter cask of wine.

Even at 1780s prices, it wasn't much pay for designing a flag. And though the evidence is sketchy, the person who actually designed our country's flag probably was a man—Francis Hopkins, a signer of the Declaration of Independence. Sentimental favorite Betsy Ross may have merely sewed what Hopkins designed. Either way, one of them created the most recognized national symbol in the world.

The Pledge of Allegiance, of far more recent origin, definitely involved multiple hands. An early version written by civil war veteran George Batch read, "I pledge allegiance to my flag, and the republic for which it stands. I pledge my head and my heart to God and my country. One country, one language, one flag!" In 1892, Baptist socialist minister Francis Bellamy penned a different version: "I pledge allegiance to my Flag and the Republic for which it stands, one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." Published as part of the 400th anniversary of Columbus's expedition to the new world, Bellamy fervently hoped that the Pledge would restore a sense of patriotism in the country. Soon schools were buying flags, and children were reciting the Pledge daily.

In 1923, the words "my flag" were changed to "Flag of the United States of America" to help immigrants recognize their new loyalties. In 1954, a Joint Resolution of Congress signed by President Eisenhower added the words "under God". Eisenhower wrote that the words "will help us to keep constantly in our minds and hearts the spiritual and moral principles which alone give dignity to man, and upon which our way of life is founded." The words distinguished the American way of life from the totalitarian systems of the world, most notably Communism.

Totalitarianism is a system of government in which the state controls the exercise of rights and freedoms. Communism is one of its several forms. Its hallmark is the elimination of religious beliefs and practices, often brutally so. The 20th century provided some horrendous examples. In Communist Russia, Josef Stalin nearly liquidated the entire Russian Orthodox Church, and vigorously persecuted other denominations. In Mexico, priests were hunted down like dogs; thousands of priests and religious were killed. In Spain, the persecution was as bad if not worse. In China, Christians were regularly targeted for imprisonment and death.

Why? It's all about liberty: who gives it, and who controls it. Properly understood, liberty is a gift of God. No person, and no government, grants liberty. Instead, it comes with our humanity and gives dignity to it. God gives us a mind to freely think all sorts of thoughts. Ironically, an atheist can freely reject the existence of God thanks to the mind that is itself a gift of God. And God gives us a will to freely and actively pursue what is objectively good—the greatest pursuit being God, who is all-Good. Those who recognize these gifts give their allegiance to God. This is what so galls the totalitarians of the world; they view themselves as the source of all rights. They want total control over everything, and they have no use for anything keeping them from taking control. Not even God. Especially not God.

Though liberty is God's gift, it is in man's power to take it away. So a free society understands the need to establish God's role and limit man's role. Our founding fathers held "self-evident" the truth that we are endowed "by our Creator" with the "unalienable" rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Governments are only intended to "secure" these rights, not to restrict or ban them. It's why our Constitution limits the role of government. And it's why we enact law: to codify those moral principles needed to protect our rights. In doing so, we recognize that liberty is a blessing and that God is its Author.

Now 240 years old, our country is in serious trouble. We are losing sight of God's role in our existence. In a speech covering the Declaration of Independence, President Obama deleted the words "by our Creator." He's done it more than once. At a recent Hillary Clinton campaign stump, a presidar read from the Pledge of Allegiance, but deleted the words "under God." Standing next to her, Clinton did nothing; some say she laughed about it. Clinton, a devout Methodist, would likely say that she didn't hear the remarks, or that nothing disrespectful to God was intended.

But this type of conduct must be seen in a wider context, particularly as it relates to legal abortion. When the Supreme Court struck the abortion laws designed to protect the right to life, it did not—and could not—recognize a new-found freedom. Liberty comes from God, not from a court. Instead, the Court was authorizing the killing of humans awaiting birth—for any reason whatsoever. This is the opposite of liberty because liberty seeks the objective good of all. By contrast, abortion is the exercise of raw power: the imposition of the strong's will on the weak. It is the essence of "might makes right." After all, does anyone honestly think that God has given us the liberty to kill defenseless humans for no greater reason than that they are alive?

Worse, Clinton's reaction to the moral problem of abortion exposes a real danger to us all. Just last year, Clinton said that "deep-seated cultural codes, religious beliefs and structural biases have to be changed" as to abortion. Get that? Religious beliefs must change, not the killing. Clinton, who no longer thinks that abortions should be rare, continued: "Laws have to be backed up with resources and political will." Get that one? The almighty state must assert its power. Not even her Methodist Church supports her; it recently withdrew from a coalition of pro-abortion groups. But if elected, she will likely appoint three Supreme Court justices, which will ensure that the killing continues for generations to come, long after she is gone.

Are we still "one nation, under God"? Based on our current state of affairs, it is hard to say yes. We are a nation divided because of abortion. Whether we still consider God as the Source of our blessings is a question that this election—and the Catholic vote—may answer.

FRATERNAL INSURANCE AGENT'S CORNER

Merry Christmas! To all my brothers and their families, I extend my very best wishes for a merry and a blessed Christmas. As we are celebrating the Christmas season, we give thanks that God sent his Only Begotten Son to live among us and save us! That gift from the Father sets the stage for our giving gifts at Christmas.

It seems we say it every year: "It's Christmas; where did the year go?" Seems like a good time to look back on the year and note all the gifts given by you and our members worldwide. As Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly mentioned in his annual report this year in Nashville, Tennessee, we have much to be thankful for and much more work ahead of us.

Consider these gifts that SK Kelly mentioned. The Order gave more than $154 million and more than 48 million hours of volunteer service. But those are the big totals. Look at these specifics: we gave the gift of warmth to more than 150,000 children through the Coats for Kids campaign. We gave 8,891 physically challenged individuals the gift of mobility this year through our wheelchair program. We raised more than $19 million for Ukraine support and gave those families the gift of respite at Mercy Centers and Easter packages. RSVP gave the gift of financial support to nearly 5,900 seminarians or postulants. And we had more than 450,000 members give the gift of life through donating blood.

These are gifts that change lives. Real people, real individuals benefited from these gifts.

As I consider Christmas I think of the gift of support and encouragement that you have given me. I appreciate the opportunity to work with you and your families this past year and I look forward to a new year and renewing connections with you.

Again, a very Merry and Blessed Christmas!
