SHEPHERDS AND CHRISTMAS

The "poor" is a theme in the Gospel of Saint Luke. Shepherds were poor. They were poor because their life style did not allow them to keep the laws of Jewish society. So, they were outcast. They were a rejected people, who were not given social respect. For St. Luke, shepherds represent all the poor, all who are powerless, all who feel the pain of rejection, all the unwanted.

Luke chose shepherds to be the first to see the Son of God --- Christ the King, born in King David's city of Bethlehem. There, the shepherds stood in awe of the glory and splendor of heaven shining around them.

Then, with trusting and believing hearts they said, "let us go now to see what the Lord has made known to us." Seeing the infant King and Savior, "they honored him, in the place where they found him." May we honor Christ where we find him. Today, we will not find him in a barn's manger. Rather, we will find him living in every human soul. Today, let us go to see what the Lord has made known to us. And there in human beings, a most unlikely place, may we honor him.

The meaning of the Divine Christ sleeping in the manger is the same meaning as the Divine Christ dying on the cross. "see how much I love you." This meaning is expressed profoundly by Cardinal Merry Duval's frequent message to his youth group in Rome (1914). "Always remember, Jesus loves you, with a love, the tenderness of which, you will never be able to understand."

It has been a privilege and an honor serving as your Chaplain for over 20 years. May God Bless You all in your future endeavors.

Chaplain,
 Rev. Leonard Traverso

MEMBERSHIP NOTES

My Brothers,

The Council needs new members. It is always the perfect time for you to introduce us to a Catholic neighbor in Church or in the Parish Community that you have thought would make a good member of the Knights of Columbus. Unless YOU are willing to ask him, if he would like to become a member of the Knights of Columbus, he WON'T join us. All you need to do is get the prospect's name and number to me. Then we will schedule the Admissions Committee with you to visit him and his family.

Andy Dyson, Membership Director

Knights of Columbus Annuity*

FIELD AGENTS REPORT

Looking for a Guaranteed Income Stream?

August 20, 2015 | Marvin H. Feldman, CLU, ChFC, RFC, President and CEO of Life Happens

If you are concerned about outliving your savings, perhaps an income annuity will fit your needs. An annuity can offer a guaranteed lifetime income that you can't outlive.

Fixed income annuities are offered with a number of payment options, allowing you to structure payouts according to your financial goals and objectives. Consider these four income streams:

Joint life: This option provides income for two people, as long as either client is alive. When one client passes away, payments continue to the survivor at 100%, 66 2/3% or 50% of what the original client was receiving.

Period certain only: This allows the client to target how long they need an income stream. If the client passes away before the end of the certain period, remaining payments continue to the designated beneficiary.

Life with a period certain: In this scenario, the annuity sponsor (Knights of Columbus) will pay out income for a client's lifetime. If the client were to pass away prior to the end of the certain period elected, the beneficiary receives the remaining payments.

An annuity is:

- A guaranteed lifetime income, one you cannot outlive
- Provides peace of mind with a steady paycheck by your design

Should this be part of your financial plan?
