August 6: The Feast of the Transfiguration

Although we hear about the Transfiguration every year on the second Sunday of Lent, the actual feast of the Transfiguration is on August 6. It is an important enough feast that it replaces the normal Sunday Liturgy. Many of us may not have experienced anything like the Transfiguration and may find it difficult to relate to. But we can learn from it.

1. We can learn that God has great glory reserved for us, as scripture says "day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts."
2. God spoke on the holy mountain about Jesus: "this is my beloved Son, listen to him." It is good to be reminded that we listen to him.
3. We can learn that we cannot expect mountain-top experiences everyday when we pray, when we receive the sacraments, when we keep the commandments. Our religion can't be based on feelings. It is not how we feel that counts, but how we live it.
4. Transfiguration tells us we can't always trust appearances. In appearance Jesus looked pretty much like us. For a brief moment on Mt. Tabor, the apostles saw and heard things that indicated there was a lot more to Jesus than they ever imagined.

 Rev. Joseph A. Page

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

My Brother Knights

Thank you for all your help during the last Columbian Year we had a great year. We have had some great inputs from you, but we could use a little more participation from our brothers working as a team.

We had our Officers Installation in the chapel last month. It was a great ceremony and the barbecue at Casa Dyson's was very enjoyable. Andy and Sharon did make some great hamburgers and hot dogs and the mean pot of chili beans was great also. Thank you for hosting the Past Grand Knights BBQ. May god bless them both.

Also may our prayers go out to our oldest and wiser brother Bill Poehlman. He was in the hospital for a heart attack, He's doing better now, but still we should pray for him and his family.

Like always, I'm looking forward to the First Degree and meeting for this month and a little input from you. And before I forget we are having our Parish Festival on August 13 looking forward to seeing you there. May god bless you and your family.

 Your Grand Knight
 Guillermo Uribe

PROGRAM DIRECTOR MESSAGE

Dear Brother Knights,

The month of August has few activities for the council so please contribute your support to the council in these activities and spend some time becoming acquainted with the ongoing initiative to support building the Domestic Church.

Our Supreme Knight Carl Anderson has announced that, "through the Order's wide-reaching new Domestic Church initiative, Knights and their families will have greater opportunities to participate in a variety of activities that promote the New Evangelization, strengthen our parishes and grow the Order".

Please visit the K of C initiative site at <http://www.kofc.org/un/en/domestic-church/index.html> and under the Family Fully Alive Program section in the center, download the "Program PDF". This booklet explains the Family Fully Alive Program and is a wealth of instructions and prayers.

A synopsis of the month of July 2017 council events:

July 8 & 9 Brother Skip Yenchik and his "Knights for Life" assisted the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life at the Murphy park. This was a 24 hours event wherein some of our Brothers solicit donations and walk the track in support of this year's event to help wipe out cancer. Another year very successful thanks to all who participated.

July 10 our first council Officers Meeting for the new Columbian year 2017 - 2018, at 7:00 pm in the St. Elizabeth room, followed by our Business meeting at 7:30. Our currently elected officers met and we kicked off our calendar of events for the new Columbian year.

July 15 & 16 we held our first weekend recruitment drive for this Columbian year after all masses in front of church. We were successful in getting the interest of 7 prospects. Thanks to all who help with this event.

July 22 our elected Council 8747 Officers for Columbian year 2017-2018 were installed in the St Elizabeth Chapel at 1:30 pm. This was followed by the Past Grand Knights BBQ/potluck, held at 3:30 pm, at Brother Andy & Lady Sharon Dyson's house. All were invited to join in the gathering and enjoy the good food and company.

Please check the enclosed calendar of August 2017 for the events that will need the assistance of our council Brothers. Here is a summary of those events:

August 7 we will hold a first degree exemplification at Candidates Register 6:00 pm, Degree begins 6:30 pm in the St. Christopher room. Our Business meeting will follow at 7:30 pm

August 13 will be the St. Elizabeth Parish festival from 9:30 am until 5:30 pm. The Knights and Boy Scout troops will again be servicing the refreshments booth. Come and have fun while you support your parish.

If you would like to share with me your ideas for the council or committees, have comments, suggestions, complaints or perhaps just need to talk, I can be reached by email at cnhudson@sbcglobal.net or phone me at Home: (408) 941-0433 or on my Cell: (408) 881-3444.

Program Director,
St. Elizabeth Council #8747.

MEMBERSHIP NOTES

My Brothers,

On July 15 and 16 we held a recruitment drive at St. Elizabeth. We obtained 7 interest cards. On July 26 we held a Knights of Columbus information night. 4 of the seven attended and 2 with their wives we had spoken to during the recruitment drive. Three men filled out a Form 100. This gives us a total of 4 Candidates for the First Degree on August 7, Candidates Registration at 6:00 PM and Degree begins at 6:30 PM. Our business meeting will begin after the degree. Members please try to arrive by 6:25 Pm in order not to interrupt the degree.

We always need new members and it's always a perfect time for you to introduce us to a Catholic neighbor in Church or in the Parish Community that you have thought would make a good member of the Knights of Columbus. Unless YOU are willing to ask him, if he would like to become a member of the Knights of Columbus, he CANNOT join us. All you need to do is get the prospect's name and number to me. Then we will schedule the Admissions Committee with you to visit him and his family.
Andy Dyson,

Membership Director

CULTURE OF LIFE

Population Control: Real Costs and Illusory Benefits

For over half a century, the population control movement has waged war on human fertility. Its ranks now include major international organizations like the International Planned Parenthood Federation and the United Nations Population Fund, as well as the foreign aid bureaucracies of most of the wealthy countries of the world. Billions of dollars are at its disposal.

For those who believe in this agenda, population growth is the root of mankind's problems. They claim that more people equals less . . . of everything: Prosperity, food supply, economic growth, social order. To hear them tell it, all the earth's real and imagined woes—from too little food and fresh water to too much pollution of air and water—are a result of the same cause. They claim—wrongly—that the planet we call home is simply too crowded.

Pope Benedict XVI made the case for people in his recent encyclical, Charity in Truth (Caritas in Veritate), writing that “to consider population increase as the primary cause of underdevelopment is mistaken, even from an economic point of view” (no. 44). The Pope criticized “non-governmental organizations [that] work actively to spread abortion, at times promoting the practice of sterilization in poor countries, in some cases not even informing the women concerned. Moreover, there is reason to suspect that development aid is sometimes linked to specific health-care policies which de facto involve the imposition of strong birth control measures” (no. 28).

For consistently defending human life, the Church in general and Pope Benedict XVI in particular are blamed for causing governments to shy away from taking the “overpopulation problem” more seriously. What population control activists fail to understand is that the Church's stance is supported by hard science and not “just” traditional morality.

Science has shown that reducing the number of babies born does not in itself solve political, economic, or environmental problems. Rather, reducing births often creates grave problems. Take Social Security and Medicare, for example. In the United States and other industrialized countries, these programs are difficult to sustain unless each generation of taxpaying workers is larger than the one that went before it.

This is exactly the problem that we face now. Those who would reduce our numbers also forget that people are ingenious producers and problem-solvers, not just inert consumers.

In fact, population growth has been the primary driver of progress throughout history. Innovators and entrepreneurs can be drawn to extract resources and to produce and distribute more goods in ways that sustain the natural environment and contribute to human development. At the end of this creative process you will have more goods available at lower prices—precisely because of population growth.

People need to be understood as the answer to problems, and not the cause of all problems. Through efforts supporting sustainable development and economic growth, environmental indicators will also improve. As the late Julian Simon often remarked, children born today will lead longer, healthier lives than ever before. They will live in a world where vast tracts of land have been set aside to preserve their natural beauty, and where the ugly scars of early industrialization have largely been healed. The world is not an overcrowded human ark, but it is—as it was designed to be—a beautiful horn of plenty. And people, the pinnacle of creation, are the ultimate resource.

Steven W. Mosher is the President of the Population Research Institute and the author of Population Control: Real Costs and Illusory Benefits (Transaction Press, 2008). He is the host of the EWTN series, "Promoting the Culture of Life around the World," and frequently testifies before the U.S. Congress on population and human rights issues. FROM THE DESK OF YOUR RELAY FOR LIFE CAPTAIN

My fellow Knights. This is my 17th year acting as Team Captain for St. Elizabeth’s Council, #8747 American Cancer Society Relay for Life entry. My first year, Brother Mike Donnelly was Team Captain. He had a conflict with an RV trip, so left me in charge for the actual Event. He never came back! Well, he is still involved (thanks for a very nice donation Mike and Barb), but he did not take the “Chairmanship” back.

This year we had a nice outcome. Eleven Knights showed up and helped fill up the schedule for the twenty four hours of the Event. I want to thank each of those Knights and their families who showed up, saw we had uncovered times, and walked multiple shifts to try to stretch our coverage. They were also instrumental in our Team reaching its goal of $5,000 ($5,620.00). I should also mention that our quarterly collection at our Business meeting netted a total of $653.00 when combined with the Council's donation. Thank you all!

We were short Knight volunteers, so a special thank you to my neighbors, my sister and her friend, and one of our Parishioners, Liliana Ramos and her friend Cindy for volunteering. (Kudos to Lil and Cindy who brought $2265 in pledges to the Event.) As best I can read my schedule, we had no coverage from midnight to 0500. However, it was not because our volunteers did not go above and beyond the call of duty.

Lastly, if you were thinking of donating to the Team or a Team member, Knights for Life will get credit for any donations for 2017 up until August 31st, 2017. We are currently exactly $500 short of being the First Place Team for Milpitas Relay for Life, 2017.

God Bless, Brother Skip Yenchik

FIELD AGENTS REPORT

We Stand Strong On Ethical Ground

Some people believe that ethics in business is a contradiction in terms. They think that in order to be profitable, a company and its leaders must abandon morality and embrace the dark, greedy side that they see so often in the news and in movies..

At the Knights of Columbus, we know this isn't true. A business can be both ethical and successful. We are.

As a Catholic organization, we understand the value and importance of our core beliefs and the original mission of Venerable Father Michael J. McGivney. In fact, much of the strength and financial security we provide to members and their families can be attributed to our ethical, moral standards.

More than 96 percent of Knights who buy our life insurance keep it, year in and year out. The Order takes this commitment to our members very seriously. This means carefully planning when it comes time to invest. Our professional staff researches all transactions to insure that they fall in line with Catholic values. If a transaction makes them uncomfortable, they don't make it.

"We exclude any company engaged in activity that conflicts with Catholic moral teaching: companies directly involved in abortion, contraception, human cloning, embryonic stem cell research, for-profit health care that pays for any of these, or pornography," said Supreme Knight Carl Anderson. "There are many companies in the pharmaceutical and communications industries that would undoubtedly provide excellent returns for us, but which are not in our portfolio because they engage in research and development or programming in ways that violate the sanctity or dignity of human life."

In the end, the Knights of Columbus investment strategy is motivated by morality, not money. Yet, each year we remain profitable, increase our assets and stay dedicated to this vision that will keep the Order financially sound for generations to come.

But don't just take our word for it. In 2014, the Knights of Columbus was named a "World's Most Ethical Company" by the Ethisphere Institute. We were one of only two life insurance companies to earn the honor.

"Faithful Catholics have choices when buying life insurance," said the Supreme Knight. "But they know that at the Knights of Columbus their policy is supplied by an insurer that shares their moral and ethical values and is guided in all of its investment and sales practices by those values."
