Like the Son who said "NO"

Our faith is not just a matter of saying the right words or celebrating proper ritual. Faith is no different than other parts of our life in this regard. Example: how well does it work in marriage if one partner is always agreeable but never follows through, or are your bosses pleased with you where you go to work but never accomplish what you are supposed to do? Our faith includes expressing ourselves in prayer and ritual (i.e. using fitting word, praying the Rosary) but it also requires that we put into action the message and the demands that Jesus has given us. If we haven't been living the way Jesus taught us, it's never too late to change things around as the young man in the parable of the two sons shows us, the son who initially said 'no' to his father, but then had a change of heart.

May we all grow in our faith in the mysteries of the kingdom through the powerful intercession and guidance of Mary, Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary.
 Chaplain,
 Rev. Joseph A. Page

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

My Brother Knights

Thank you to all who helped cook and serve hamburgers at Our Lady Star of the Sea Festival in Alviso. Father Hector was very happy to see the amount of members that helped out on the event. We cooked 100 hamburgers for the festival.

The Family Potluck and Recognition Social had a great turn out. I was happy to see members and their families and also Father Joseph was there. I would like to say thank you for your presence and looking forward to our meeting Oct. 2nd.

I have some ideas for PWID for this coming month. We need all hands on deck for members to help out at the church and Ocean Supermarket. Come join us in supporting this great cause.

Your Grand Knight,,

PROGRAM DIRECTOR MESSAGE

Dear Brother Knights,

I would like to invite each Brother and his family to reflect upon the pamphlet released by Supreme entitled "The Family Fully Alive", Building the Domestic Church. The term "domestic church" describes the identity and mission of a Christian family. Its roots are scriptural.

Scripture Reading — Psalm 144:1-3; 9-15

A prayer of thanksgiving for God's faithfulness. Blessed be the LORD, my rock, who trains my hands for battle, my fingers for war; My safeguard and my fortress, my stronghold, my deliverer, My shield, in whom I take refuge, who subdues peoples under me. O God, a new song I will sing to you; on a ten-stringed lyre I will play for you. You give victory to kings; you delivered David your servant. From the menacing sword deliver me; rescue me from the hands of foreign foes. Their mouths speak untruth; their right hands are raised in lying oaths. May our sons be like plants well nurtured from their youth, Our daughters, like carved columns, shapely as those of the temple. May our barns be full with every kind of store. May our sheep increase by thousands, by tens of thousands in our fields; may our oxen be well fattened. May there be no breach in the walls, no exile, no outcry in our streets. blessed the people so fortunate; blessed the people whose God is the LORD.

Our Supreme Knight Carl Anderson has announced that, "through the Order's wide-reaching new Domestic Church initiative, Knights and their families will have greater opportunities to participate in a variety of activities that promote the New Evangelization, strengthen our parishes and grow the Order".

Please visit the K of C initiative site at <http://www.kofc.org/un/en/domestic-church/index.html> and under the Family Fully Alive Program section in the center, download the "Program PDF". This booklet explains the Family Fully Alive Program and is a wealth of instructions and prayers.

A synopsis of the month of September 2017 council events:

September 9 we held an eWaste Drive in the back lot of St Elizabeth Church parking lot from 9:00 am until 1:00 pm. Thanks to all our Brother Knights who assisted along with the many students from Milpitas High. Great Job everyone.

Those Brothers helping at the event were Brother Andy Dyson, Brother Vinh Nguyen, Brother Khai Phan, Brother Jesse Rodriguez, Brother Tim Crews who assisted with setup, a record number of hamburger sales and the cleanup. Even our Chapter President, Alvin Cura, attended with his wife and purchased burgers. All had a great time and the parish was extremely thankful. Great job Brothers.

MEMBERSHIP NOTES

My Brothers,

Congratulations to our newest council Second Degree members Joseph Huynh and Allen Shroyer who completed their Second Degree on September 23 at St. Elizabeth.

We always need new members and it's always a perfect time for you to introduce us to a Catholic neighbor in Church or in the Parish Community that you have thought would make a good member of the Knights of Columbus. Unless YOU are willing to ask him, if he would like to become a member of the Knights of Columbus, he CANNOT join us. All you need to do is get the prospect's name and number to me. Then we will schedule the Admissions Committee with you to visit him and his family.

Andy Dyson,
Membership Director

CULTURE OF LIFE Blessed is the Fruit of Your Womb by Deirdre A. McQuade May 18, 2007

When Notre Dame undergrads go to the campus bookstore for course supplies and sweatshirts, they pass a striking bronze sculpture by Holy Cross priest, Rev. Anthony J. Lauck. It depicts the Visitation – the Blessed Virgin Mary greeting her cousin Elizabeth. Both pregnant, the two have to lean in toward each other, as their growing bellies don't allow for an upright embrace.

I was quite taken with this piece while working as a crisis pregnancy counselor and showed a photo of it to my dad, who loves to apply scripture to daily life. He remarked: "That's what you do at the center ... you greet the unwed pregnant woman with love when others might judge or reject her.” His words inspired me to reflect on the passage from Luke’s gospel (1:39-56).

Elizabeth first trusted the angel’s words and miraculously conceived John the Baptist beyond her natural childbearing years. Then when Mary wondered how she would conceive the Christ child, asking “How can this be?” Gabriel explained that he would be the Son of God, and reassured her of God’s powerful generosity: “Elizabeth, your relative, has also conceived a son in her old age for nothing will be impossible for God.” Upon hearing this, Mary assented joyfully to God’s will, a pivotal moment in salvation history.

When Mary came to visit, Elizabeth could hardly contain herself. The infant John “leapt for joy” in her womb and she cried out in the Holy Spirit: “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.” The joy and solidarity of their encounter is captured in Fr. Lauck’s work, as well as in the opening words of the “Hail Mary.”

While it is not unusual for pregnant women to be alternately excited and worried about the future, some can become overwhelmed in the absence of a strong marriage or supportive community. Others lack sufficient financial resources or may see pregnancy as an intrusion into their well-established life plans. Far from being embraced with joy, they may feel like they don’t have much of a choice.

Abortion promoters insist that access to abortion is necessary for such situations. But this is false solidarity. Like Mary and Elizabeth, we can respond differently, more creatively. There is no such thing as a “need” for abortion. It is never necessary for anyone to do evil, and it is always possible to choose the good.

Pregnancy help centers across the country help women choose the good at a pivotal moment in their family history. They greet pregnant women with compassion, offer a safe place for them to reflect on their life situation, and address their actual needs. They help women see children as a gift regardless of any difficulties that may lie ahead. Once women are empowered with real alternatives – including adoption as a loving, generous option – they can resist the temptation to abort. Combined with policy and education initiatives and much prayer, such outreach will help bring an end to abortion, for nothing is impossible with God.

To find your local pregnancy help center, call 1-888-4-OPTIONS (888-467-8466).
