Remembering the Dead, Befriending our Death

This month we vow to pray for the faithful departed. Holy water is sprinkled to many graves and tombstones. This helps to keep the dark forces away and to keep the presence of light with the dead on their peaceful journey. The dead are not far away; they are very near us, our nearest neighbors still in communion with us. Each one of us someday will have to face our own appointment with death. I like to think of this as an encounter with our deepest nature and most hidden self. It is a journey toward a new horizon. As a child, when I looked up at the mountain near my village, I used to dream of the day when I would be old enough to go up to the top of the mountain thinking that I would be able to see the world on the horizon. With this metaphor I understand death to be a final horizon. Bishop Robert Barron of Los Angeles recently wrote: "No matter how good, how beautiful a state of affairs is here below, it is destined to pass into non-being. That sunset that I enjoyed last night--the radiant beautiful display--is now forever gone. It lasted only a while. That beautiful person- attractive, young, full of life, creative, joyful--will eventually age, get sick, breakdown and die." I believe this is not meant to make us depressed but rather helps us to think of a new horizon that awaits us, to behold the beauty and light of our eternal face. It is meant to redirect our attention precisely to the things that are "above" to the eternity of God.

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

My Brother Knights

I would like to say "thank you" to all our brothers who participated with PWID drive at the St. Elizabeth and Ocean Supermarket. It was a great event with all the students from Milpitas High. They were very helpful.

The event at St. Elizabeth Church Evening with Mary it was a beautiful ceremony. I was happy that Color Corps was there. It was well organized. My Uncle Jose Manuel Hueso, a third degree member visiting from Seattle, Washington, loved the service.

My brothers we have to prepare ourselves to help out this month. Andy and Charlie need help with the Keep Christ In Christmas cards sales outside after every mass on Saturday and Sunday. If you can help, please respond to Andy's email.

Looking forward for this month's meeting. So you could give me your input on any other fund raisers we can do.

My prayers go out to the people in Puerto Rico, Mexico City and Northern California for the devastation caused by the fires and hurricanes. May God bless them all.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR MESSAGE

Dear Brother Knights,

As we begin this very busy month of November I would like to reflect on something our Supreme Knight, Carl Anderson, said regarding our councils major activity for this month. He said, "Our 'Keep Christ in Christmas' program is more important than ever. Our work to keep Christ in Christmas helps everyone remember that you can't have Christmas without Christ."

As I mentioned, the 'Keep Christ in Christmas' card sales activity is our major activity for November and I would like to personally invite each Brother to come out and help during the campaign whether it be for 15 minutes after the mass you attend, one hour during a mass or one full day to support all masses that day. This campaign last for the 4 weekends in November with 2 masses on Saturday and 6 masses on Sunday. We need your support so 'Thanks' in advance for your assistance.

Two other events that we solicit your support for during November are the councils celebration of the Memorial Rosary on November 6th and our Thanksgiving Food for Families activity during the month of November, finishing up with the sorting of the collected items on November 20st and the distribution of the Food Baskets on November 21st.

I would also like to extend my invitation to each Brother and his family to keep on reflecting upon the information in the pamphlet released by Supreme entitled "The Family Fully Alive", Building the Domestic Church. The term "domestic church" describes the identity and mission of a Christian family. Its roots are scriptural.

Scripture Reading — Psalm 98:1-6 A prayer to welcome God's rule over the earth.

Sing a new song to the LORD, for he has done marvelous deeds.

His right hand and holy arm have won the victory. The LORD has made his victory known; he revealed his triumph in the sight of the nations,

He has remembered his mercy and faithfulness toward the house of Israel.

All the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.

Shout with joy to the LORD, all the earth; break into song; sing praise.

Sing praise to the LORD with the lyre, with the lyre and melodious song.

Our Supreme Knight Carl Anderson has announced that, "through the Order's wide-reaching new Domestic Church initiative, Knights and their families will have greater opportunities to participate in a variety of activities that promote the New Evangelization, strengthen our parishes and grow the Order".

Please visit the K of C initiative site at <http://www.kofc.org/un/en/domestic-church/index.html> and under the Family Fully Alive Program section in the center, download the "Program PDF". This booklet explains the Family Fully Alive Program and is a wealth of instructions and prayers.

4 out of 5 Adults Surveyed Would Limit Abortion

by Deirdre A. McQuade, January 9, 2009

Year in and year out, regardless of the administration or party in power, many thousands of people journey to Washington, D.C. each January 22 for the March for Life. These pilgrims – along with millions across the country at local events – witness to the dignity of human life, protest the Supreme Court's Roe v. Wade decision, and pray for an end to abortion. Why has the pro-life witness remained so strong thirty-six years after Roe legalized abortion on demand?

A major reason is that Roe v. Wade does not represent the views of the vast majority of Americans. In fact, it reflects the personal position of only 9% of U.S. adults, and most Americans would ban abortion altogether or limit its scope.

Public opinion doesn't make something right or wrong. Direct attacks on innocent persons at any stage of life are fundamentally wrong and never justifiable. Catholics should give witness to the inviolable dignity of human life even if we stand alone. But polling continues to show that we are far from alone in rejecting the legal and moral distortions of Roe.

In December, the Pro-Life Secretariat at the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops commissioned a nationwide survey of 2,341 U.S. adults representing the general public. Conducted online by one of the nation's top pollsters, the poll found that four out of five surveyed (82%) think abortion should be illegal or restricted in some way.

Nearly half (49%) support extensive restrictions: 11% percent think abortion should be illegal under all circumstances, and another 38% would restrict abortion to the narrow circumstances of life endangerment, rape or incest – reasons that account for less than 2% of all abortions.

An additional 33% think abortion should be legal for any reason, but would limit it to either the first three or first six months of pregnancy. When added to the 49% above, this produces a total of 82% wanting to limit the legality of abortion. That's four out of five surveyed.

A mere 9% said abortion should be legal for any reason at any time during pregnancy. The remaining 9% declined to answer the question.

These findings are remarkable! Fewer than one in ten Americans support legal abortion for any reason at any time during pregnancy. But that is the current extreme state of the abortion license under Roe v. Wade and its companion case, Doe v. Bolton.

If you don't know Doe, then you don't know Roe. Our abortion law is so extreme partly due to Doe's overly broad definition of "health" as applied to Roe's requirement that laws against late-term abortions must have a health exception. According to Doe v. Bolton, maternal health includes "all factors – physical, emotional, psychological, familial, and the woman's age – relevant to the well-being of the patient." The "health" exception swallows the rule. Thus, except for a very specific ban on the partial-birth abortion procedure, there are no meaningful abortion restrictions in our country.

In solidarity with expectant mothers and their children, born and unborn, the pro-life movement will continue to witness, pray, and protest for those who have no voice of their own. Visit www.usccb.org/prolife/prayervigil for ways to join us on the 2009 Day of Prayer and Penance for Life.

FIELD AGENTS REPORT

LTC Is an Important Piece of the Puzzle

There are many financial consultants and retirement authorities who emphasize the need for a long-term care (LTC) product for estate preservation and family protection. While many commercial life insurance companies have gotten out of the long-term care business, the Knights of Columbus considers LTC a very important piece of the family protection puzzle. The Order has been actively offering our members this product for nearly 15 years without a premium increase on current policyholders. Members who wisely purchased an LTC plan from the Knights in 2000 are still paying the same premiums today. Even better, our LTC coverage is backed by the full strength of the Order, which remains rooted in our strong Catholic values. Talk about stability when it counts.

If we have not spoken about your need for LTC coverage in your family portfolio, please take some time out of your schedule to meet with me.

Remember, long-term care policies are underwritten based on your health, and you most likely will never be any healthier than you are today.

Contact me today to learn more about our products.
