An Easter Invite? Alleluia!

A man wandered into the local cemetery. It was night and he was severely "under the influence." He stumbled into an open grave and fell asleep. When he awakened the next day, he was puzzled, to say the least. He climbed to the top of the grave, looked around at all the tombstones, and exclaimed, "My God, it's the resurrection. And I'm the first one up." This is the invitation of Easter.

Why not resurrect who you are, and give yourself new life? It's the good news that we don't have to wait until death to share in the resurrection. We can start now. Every time we begin a new, we share in the power of the resurrection. The power of Easter is that nothing can destroy us anymore: not pain, not sin, not rejection, not death. St John Chrysostom in his 4th century sermon reminds us today: "Rejoice today, for the table is richly laden. Let no one mourn that he had fallen again and again, For forgiveness has risen from the grave."

Happy Easter!

Chaplain

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

My Brother Knights

We had a great March with participation in the 2nd degree and hopefully in doing their 3rd this month. Our Quarterly Family Potluck and Recognition Social was a great success with more families attending. The highlight in the evening was my father singing a song.

I participated in the Friday March 30 funeral mass for Christ Our Lord and I would like to say "thank you" for the Fourth degree color Corps for their presence. It was fantastic with the old and new uniforms. The public said they look great.

I look forward to our meeting this month and your input, so, come and join us.

Your Grand Knight,,
Guillermo Uribe

PLEASE PRAY FOR:

- The Soul of Brother Ludwig Indihar
- The Soul of Brother Timothy Reilly, PGK
- The Soul of Brother Theodore H. Nguyen
- Brother Bill Poehlman
- Brother Rev. Leonard Traverso

Brother Lyle Ambler
 Brother Todd Ferrand
 And all those listed in the Church Prayer List.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR MESSAGE

Dear Brother Knights,

I would like to take a moment and wish our Brothers and their families a Happy Easter Sunday this 1st day of April. I would also like to remind everyone that we just finished up the Lenten season and on this Easter Sunday we began the Easter season which will last for 50 days, until Pentecost Sunday. During this Easter Season we celebrate the Lord's resurrection from the dead, culminating in his Ascension to the Father in heaven and the sending of the Holy Spirit upon the Church. Remember what we each accomplished during this Lenten season and let us continue our quest in helping those who are less fortunate than us and who need our assistance. Remember, Charity is the first basic principle of our Order.

Please continue reflecting upon the information contained in the K of C Catholic Information Service pamphlet entitled "The Family Fully Alive", Building the Domestic Church. The term "domestic church" describes the identity and mission of a Christian family. Its roots are scriptural.

This pamphlet can be obtained by visiting the K of C initiative site at <http://www.kofc.org/un/en/domestic-church/index.html> and selecting the Family Fully Alive Program section, then download the "Full PDF" booklet which explains the Family Fully Alive Program and is a wealth of instructions and prayers.

Scripture Reading —Psalm 51:3-6, 11-15 A prayer of penance and longing for God's abundant mercy. I sought the LORD, and he answered me, delivered me from all my fears.

Thoroughly wash away my guilt; and from my sin cleanse me.

For I know my transgressions; my sin is always before me.

Against you, you alone have I sinned; I have done what is evil in your eyes

So that you are just in your word, and without reproach in your judgment.

Turn away your face from my sins; blot out all my iniquities.

A clean heart create for me, God; renew within me a steadfast spirit.

Do not drive me from before your face, nor take from me your holy spirit.

Restore to me the gladness of your salvation; uphold me with a willing spirit.

I will teach the wicked your ways, that sinners may return to you.

Healing an Abortion-Wounded Nation

By Deirdre A. McQuade

January 21, 2011

The Guttmacher Institute has issued its latest report on abortion in the United States, based on survey responses from abortion providers in all fifty states. The numbers are staggering. In 2008, the most recent year for which statistics are available, 22% of pregnancies (excluding miscarriages) ended in abortion; and from 1973 to 2008, nearly 50 million abortions were performed.

After Roe v. Wade legalized abortion throughout the nine months of pregnancy in 1973, the abortion rate quickly peaked at 29.3 abortions per 1000 women of childbearing age in 1981. It then dropped steadily for 25 years, but has leveled off at 19.6 per 1,000 -- just above the rate seen in 1974.

It is difficult to speak of our progress in reducing the numbers of abortions when every year over one million lives are being destroyed and over one million women endure—at a minimum—sadness, grief, and guilt over the child they've lost. While women deserve to know the truth about abortion's risks, Guttmacher downplays the mental and physical complications, noting only the relatively small incidence of reported hospitalizations attributed to abortion. (Remember that Guttmacher started out as the research arm of Planned Parenthood, the nation's largest abortion provider, and still retains that bias.) Yet scores of studies worldwide show an increased risk of depression, anxiety, alcohol and drug abuse, suicide attempts, and deaths associated with abortion.

Women are not the only ones affected by abortion. Fathers regret their lost fatherhood and can feel like failures. Grandparents grieve their lost grandchildren. Friends who supported their friends' "choices" years ago now question whether they did the right thing. Children with aborted siblings wonder if they, too, were unwanted – and mourn the loss of a brother or sister whom they never got to meet.

Ours is an abortion-wounded nation. But God's loving mercy is great – certainly greater than any abortion, and even greater than the 50 million abortions committed to date. Through the mercy of Jesus' own suffering, God wants to heal and restore all who have been involved in abortion – including those who perform, facilitate or promote abortion through fundraising and policy making.

To reach some of those harmed by abortion, the Catholic bishops' conference has launched a 10-week ad campaign promoting Project Rachel, the Church's non-judgmental, confidential post-abortion healing ministry, on bus stop shelters in the Washington, DC area. Four ads depict four people from different walks of life reflecting with regret on their past involvement in abortion. Each in turn is answered with a gentle message of forgiveness, mercy and hope. One says to herself, "I feel so worthless" to which the reply comes, "You are precious to God." A man thinks, "I failed as a father" and hears back, "Do not despair. All is not lost." Another ad depicts a beautiful Latina, who thinks, "No merezco ser feliz" ("I don't deserve to be happy") and then hears, "Dios quiere devolverte tu felicidad" ("God wants to restore your happiness"). All ads end with the message: "Come back to God, who is Love and Mercy."

The ads invite viewers to contact Project Rachel via its national toll-free number: 888-456-HOPE (4673) or www.HopeAfterAbortion.org featuring a map with all the local Project Rachel offices. If you know someone suffering after abortion, please consider sharing this information with him or her, too.

Deirdre A. McQuade is Assistant Director for Policy & Communications at the Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops. For more information on the Church's post-abortion outreach, please visit www.usccb.org/prolife/issues/postabortion or www.HopeAfterAbortion.org.

Protecting Widows – A Founding Goal

As a member of this council, you know how important spouses can be to the charitable works of the Order. If you're married, your wife is probably involved in a few of the many events that happen each fraternal year. This support adds great value and impact to what a council can achieve.

When the Order was founded in 1882, Father Michael J. McGivney and the other brave men were setting out to protect Catholic families, but especially wives and children. Today, we remain committed to this mission by offering insurance products and fraternal benefits designed with that goal in mind. One specific policy rider that you may not know about is called Spousal Waiver of Premium. This rider is unique to the Knights of Columbus philosophy of helping our widows.

This rider is available on most permanent and Discoverer plans purchased at standard rates by a member and his wife on the same day. When both spouses apply, the rider provides for waiver of premiums on the spouse's contract in the event of the insured's death. Best of all, for members and spouses ages 18 to 60, this waiver can be added for no charge. The rider stays in effect until the spouse attains age 65 or certain other triggering events occur.

Our products are designed with your needs and budget in mind. With a solid portfolio of life insurance, long-term care, disability income and retirement products, the Knights of Columbus can help you meet all of your financial goals. To learn more about these solutions, contact me today.
